Acuff completes Marine training

Marine Pfc. John David S. Acuff, son of Paul D. and Nancy J. Acuff of 108 Croft Drive, Kings Mountain, recently completed basic training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

Acuff successfully completed 12 weeks of training designed to challenge new Marine recruits both physically and mentally.

Acuff and fellow recruits begin their training at 5 am, by running three miles and performing calisthenics. In addition to the physical conditioning program, Acuff spent numerous hours in classroom and field assignments which included learning first aid, uniform regulations, combat water survival, marksmanship, hand-to-hand combat, and assorted weapons training. They performed close-order drill and operated as a small infantry unit during field training.

Acuff and other recruits also received instruction on the Marine Corps' core values-- honor, courage and commitment, and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Acuff and fellow recruits ended the training phase with The Crucible, a 54-hour team effort, problem solving evolution which culminated with an emotional ceremony in which the recruits were presented the Marine Corps Emblem, and were addressed as "Marines" for the first time since boot camp began.

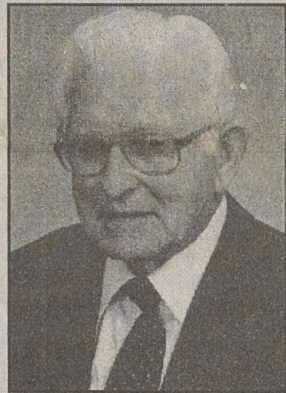

Acuff joins 41,000 men and women who will enter the Marine Corps this year from all over the country.

He is a 1991 graduate of Kings Mountain High School.

Lindsay graduates Bulk Fuel Course

Marine Pfc. David G. Lindsay, son of Ellen J. Lindsay of Kings Mountain, recently graduated from the Bulk Fuel Specialist Course.

During the course at the U.S. Army Quarter Master School, Fort Lee, Va., students receive instruction on the installation, operation, maintenance and repair of fuel handling units and accessory equipment.

In Memory of

A Message From
Heaven To My Family
Didn't mean to make you cry when I said "Good-Bye".

Maybe there's thoughts of words unsaid since I've left and gone ahead; Happily in Heaven - Never say "I'm dead", I'm with the Lord where He called me to be so happy with thee.

Dear Lord ease any sadness or hurt, give comfort and peace of mind to those who were left behind

My prayers Be with You

We thought of you with love today but that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday and the days before that too.

We think of you in silence we often speak your name.

All we have now are memories and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part.

God has you in his keeping we have you in our hearts.

A million times we cried, If love alone could have saved you you never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly. In death we love you still.

In our hearts you hold a place no one can ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone.

For a part of us went with you the day God took you home.

Your loving Wife
& Children
