Iron City Ministries expands hours

Iron City Ministries of Blacksburg, SC has expanded its operations at 303 West Cherokee Street. Hours are now Monday through Friday from 9 a.m.-12 noon, and Tuesday evenings from 7-9 p.m.

"Because of the increased interest and attitude of local churches, enough volunteers have been recruited to expand the hours and work," said Board President, Rev. Ken Reid, pastor of Blacksburg's First Baptist Church.

Mary Westmoreland of Gaffney has been serving as Director of ICM, helping train, enlist and coordinate volunteers in her off hours while serving full-time with Piedmont Community Action.

Dawn Collins is Office

Manager and Lillian Manning is Volunteer Coordinator.

The ICM Board approved the use of its facilities for meetings of Gamblers Anonymous; and heard a report on an effort to begin a Release Time Bible Study in local schools. Rev. Darrell Revels, pastor of Mt. Paran Baptist; Rev. Vernon Craig, pastor of Antioch Baptist; and Rev. Reid head up the committee.

ICM also reported that over $1,100 was raised at a recent yard sale that involved over 12 churches and 30 volunteers.

Any Blacksburg area church interested in information about ICM, or any person or family that might need assistance may call the office at 839-9783.

Miller-Rowe to perform at KMNMP

The Miller-Rowe Consort will perform in the visitor center of Kings Mountain National Military Park Saturday, June 19 at 7:30 p.m.

The Miller-Rowe Consort combines the hammer dulcimer and classical guitar into an unmistakable sound with rich texture. The performance will feature Appalachian, Celtic, Early American and traditional music which is most often associated with these instruments. The Miller-Rowe Consort will also perform original selections that contain folk, classical, and jazz elements.

The Miller-Rowe Consort consists of David Rowe, pastor of Blacksburg ARP Church on the hammer dulcimer, and Michael Miller on the classical guitar. Miller currently teaches classical guitar at Presbyterian College.

The Miller-Rowe Consort is on the Approved Artist Roster of the South Carolina Arts Commission. They have performed at such events as First Night Greenville, Christmas at the Biltmore Estate, and Bele Chere Festival. The duet has also been featured on the CBS Morning Show.

The park visitor center will remain open prior to and during the performance.
