Chris Wallace completes U.S. Marine basic training

Marine reservist Chris Wallace graduated boot camp at Parris Island, South Carolina, June 4, 1999. Wallace had entered training on March 8.

During his training, Wallace had received certification as a weapons specialist. He will be going to Birmingham, Alabama for seven additional weeks of advanced weapons school.

Wallace is a 1996 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, and is employed at Turbo Conveyor in Kings Mountain. He is the son of Tammy Williams and stepfather Duane Williams of Grover. His father David Wallace lives in Gastonia. Marine Wallace, 21, hopes to eventually become a state trooper.
