GWU to host July 4th events

Gardner-Webb University and the town of Boiling Springs are teaming up to provide an evening of fireworks and fun on July 4th. The activities will take place around the Lake Hollifield Complex on the GWU campus and will feature the first fireworks show ever presented in the town on Independence Day. The public is invited.

The display will begin at 9:30 p.m. The University, however, is opening its grounds at 7 p.m. for those who would like to picnic around the lake. Visitors are encouraged to take frisbees, horseshoes or other favorite summertime activities for use near the lake.

Special music, including favorite beach selections, will be provided around the lake by WGWG-FM (88.3), the radio station of GWU. Special music will also accompany the fireworks display.

Officers will be directing traffic as visitors enter Boiling Springs, helping vehicles to designated parking areas. The suggested route to the area where the fireworks are most visible is South Main Street, turning right on Stadium Drive just past Hardee's.

Drew Van Horn, vice-president for university relations at GWU, said of the event, "From the University's point of view, we are considering this our gift to the community. So many people in the area have supported us with their time, effort, prayers and resources, that we wanted to take this chance to thank everyone."

Melrose South Pyrotechnics Inc. of Catawba, SC will handle the fireworks display. It is the same company that GWU employed last fall for a fireworks display in celebration of the University raising $34 million in a capital campaign.

Cleveland Mall sets celebration on July 3

Cleveland Mall will hold its annual July fourth celebration Saturday, July 3 beginning at 12 noon.

Entertainment will begin at noon on center stage with Tammy Arrowood's Stars of Tomorrow, followed by the Wagon Wheelers Square Dance Club. Also performing will be Jukebox Legends by JB Brown.

Magic 96.1 FM's Harriet Coffey will host a pre-fireworks party beginning at 6:30 with The Band of Gold. Some lucky shoppers will have a chance to grab for cash in the Magic Money Pit. There will also be a magic fun wheel, price machine, magicians, an Uncle Sam still walker, concessions in the parking lot and free face painting for kids.

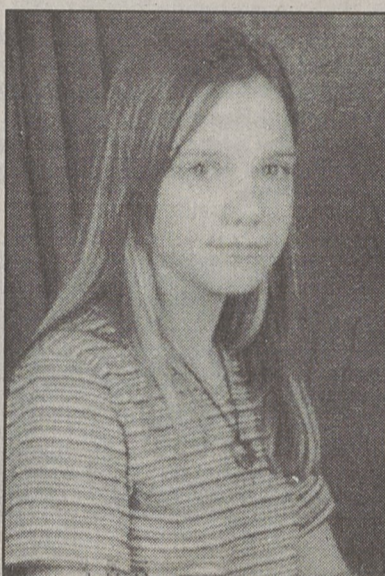

Free glow in the dark yo-yos will be given away at the customer service booth beginning at 6 p.m. There is a limit of one per child.

WOHS (730 AM) will host a special simulcast during the fireworks display which begins at 9:30 p.m. After the fireworks, there will be a moonlight madness sale, with mall stores remaining open until 11 p.m.

The event is co-sponsored by Belk, JCPenney, Sears and WOHS.

Cameras are not allowed on property without prior permission. For more information, call Pam Sharts at 484-2001 ext. 11.
