

WHAT'S HAPPENING

ALAN HODGE/THE HERALD

Gigantic yard sale Saturday at Legion

"The biggest collection of yard sale items under one roof" is how members of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 155 are advertising a Saturday benefit beginning at 7 a.m. at the American Legion Building on York Road.

Norma Bridges, chairman, said members will display an assortment of items- from odds and ends to furniture and antique items. Those wishing to donate may call any member of the Auxiliary and items will be picked up.

Members of the committee are Myrtle Christenson, Arlene Barrett, Lou Ballew and Peggy Jackson.

"The Unit is making plans for a big Homecoming event at American Legion Post 155 in October in honor of Kings Mountain's Lib Stewart, who will be installed as National President of the American Legion Auxiliary in September," said Mrs. Bridges. "Proceeds from the yard sale will be used to defray those costs."

Proceeds from Auxiliary fundraisers also provide a scholarship for a local veteran's child and to help veterans and their families through gifts to area VA Medical Clinics and to nursing homes where veterans are residents.

Bluegrass Festival in Shelby July 22-24 will benefit LIVE

The sounds of banjos, guitars, and fiddles will bring the Cleveland County fairgrounds to life this summer as Cleveland County's LIVE! Inc. (Living Independently through Volunteers for the Elderly) hosts its first ever Bluegrass Festival.

The three-day event, to be held Thursday, July 22 through Saturday, July 24, will play host to some of the top names on the Bluegrass charts. Festival-goers will be treated to the sounds of Seldom Scene, The Country Gentlemen, Blueridge, and the McPeak Brothers.

They will be joined in the fairgrounds' large pavilion by several other popular groups. Performances will be held 7 until 11 pm Thursday, with Strings of Fire, Hudson Family, Indian Creek, and Open Mike appearing. Friday's line up includes Dollar Brother, New River, McPeak Brothers and the Country Gentlemen appearing 2 until 5:45 pm and again during the 7 to 10:45 performance. Saturday's two performances, 1 until 5:45 pm and 7 until 11:45 pm, will include Carolina Connection, Far Country Boys, Southern Junction, Blue Ridge, and Seldom Scene.

The event will be held, rain or shine, and will also feature arts, crafts, vendor sales, and home cooked food. There will be free mule train rides during the event. Bring a chair or blanket for the concert.

More than 100 full hook-up campsites are available on a first-come basis for $10 per night. Rough camping is free with a weekend ticket (no hookups). Hot showers and flushable toilets are on site.

Three-day advance tickets are available through July 15, and are $35. They may be ordered by sending a check or money order to LIVE! 1268 Fallston Road, Shelby NC 28150. Advance sale tickets can be picked up at the Will Call Window upon arrival at the fairgrounds. Three-day tickets will be on sale at the gate for $40. Other gate ticket prices include $5 for Thursday, $20 for Friday, and $20 for Saturday. Children under 12 will be admitted free with a paying adult.

The Cleveland County Fairgrounds is located on Highway 74 Business in Shelby. From I-85, take Highway 74 West to Shelby. Turn right from Highway 74 West to 74 Business. Fairgrounds will be on the right.

For additional information or advance ticket dates, please contact the LIVE! office at 704-484-5483.

Aviation on exhibit at County Arts Council

Hayne Coleman's powerful color pencil renderings of World War II fighter plane battles are on display this month at Cleveland County Arts Council. The "dog fights" are based on actual incidents, as told to Coleman by the airmen involved.

Coleman depicts his earliest memories of art and the vehicle behind his work. "I've been drawing ever since I was old enough to hold a pencil," he said. "I suppose one of the first influences in my early youth was a TV program called 'Learn to Draw.' It was through watching this program I learned about depth perception and vanishing points. Planes were almost from my first memories. When I was four, my dad bought a couple of models that Easter. As I recall one was a B-25 and the other was an early '30s air racer. Dad put together the Mitchell and I the other."

The exhibit will include pencil drawings, etchings, oils, airbrush, and sculpture. The work will remain on exhibit until July 23.

The Arts Council's hours are Monday-Friday 9 am-5 pm. For more information call 484-2787.

TAYLOR

From 3B

Taylor Lynch, sisters of the groom, of Kings Mountain, and Jessica Carolina Canipe of Shelby, Amy Elizabeth Cloyd of Charlotte, and Heather Rachelle Lemmons of Shelby.

Register attendants were Cynthia Chang, the bride's sorority sister, of Howell, NJ, and Denise Small of Kings Mountain. Carrie Altman of Lawrenceville, GA, and Erica Florio of Irvington, NY, both sorority sisters of the bride, distributed programs. Mrs. Ronald Canipe and Mrs. Max Phillips, both of Shelby, directed the wedding.

Flower girls were Michele Gassman of Shelby, Abigail Lynch, the groom's niece, of Kings Mountain, and Laura Rose, the bride's cousin, of Shelby.

Ring bearer was Tyler Rose, the bride's cousin, of Boiling Springs.

Conley Eugene Taylor was his son's Best Man. Ushers were the groom's brothers-in-law, James Belcher and Jason Lynch, both of Kings Mountain, and Ted Anderson and Christopher Hawkins of Kings Mountain, Nathan Champion and Eddie Henson of Charlotte, and Charles Kaylor of Cornelius.

The bride's parents hosted the reception at Cleveland County Arts Council. Guests were greeted at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Roe of Shelby. The food table was decorated with mixed flowers and ivy in a tall brass planter. There were arrangements of ivy and candles on the individual tables, hand made by the bride. Topiary of ivy was on the gift table.

Music was provided by DJ Mike McDaniel. Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple will reside in Greensboro.
