Commissioners and Bill Stephens, Director of Regional Operations of the NC Department of Commerce. "I believe this is good for the economic development," said Rob Youngblood, President of Cleveland County Chamber. The plant is also said to be safe for the community because it is environmentally friendly. All of its waste is treated in the plants own waste water treatment area and is recycled back to the city. To show that the plant recycles only clean water back into the system, it has placed a fish tank full of fish filled with the recycled clean water in the plant.

area economically and hire locally as well," said Dale McKillop, Plant Manager. The main reasons for the expansion is the dedication of the work force to quality and their product to the community. President John Wise believes in his team and Cleveland County. Speakers at the groundbreaking were John T. CHAMBER

With all of the excitement, one may believe the event could get out of control. The Chamber however promotes responsible drinking and has the AA Cab service phone number available to drive people home and pay phones out in the open for people to call a cab. "We have never had any fights or problems in the past. Everyone is really safe," said Self. Tailgate spaces are available in advance for $60 and include four tickets and one car pass. Limited tailgate spaces may be available at the gate at the price of $80. Individual admission tickets are $10 in advance through August 20 and $15 at the gate. For more information contact the Chamber at 704-487-8521.

"Everyone enjoyed "The Maxx" last year. They really get the audience involved. Last year was our seventh year and our largest ever. Everyone came out to socialize and see people they don't get to see since last year's event," said Self. Atlanta, GA. The band plays 70's, 80's and 90's music and requests. The concert will begin at 8 p.m. until midnight. "The Maxx" has over 15 years of experience playing at corporate parties, conventions, night-clubs, colleges, high schools and amusement parks. They have toured extensively throughout the United States, the Caribbean, Canada, Germany and Japan.
