ALAN HODGE/THE HERALD
In addition to his duties as minister of music at First Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, Morris Jordan is also a member of the internationally known vocal group The Centurymen. Jordan has traveled to several foreign countries including China with The Centurymen.

Jordan, Centurymen in running for Grammy

BY ALAN HODGE
Staff Writer

Cleveland County is a long way from China, but the Christian message delivered by First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain minister of music Morris Jordan and The Centurymen vocal group he's a part of knows no boundaries.

Now in their 31st year, and 100 members strong, The Centurymen have not only toured China, but much of the nation and world. The group's success has not gone unnoticed, because Jordan and his fellow Centurymen are up for a Grammy Award at this year's February 23 presentation ceremonies.

"I grew up in a singing family down in Crossville, Alabama," Jordan said. "My father led the church singers and I soon felt the call to the music ministry."

Following graduation from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, Jordan came to North Carolina in 1961 and went to work at Dover Baptist Church in Shelby. After about five years at Dover Baptist, Jordan moved to the Tar Heel coast and took over the music at First Baptist Church of New Bern. After a stint in New Bern, Jordan once again traversed the state to Canton, N.C. After 17 years in Canton, Jordan finally came to Kings Mountain in 1987.

It was during his stay at First Baptist in Canton that Jordan's pastor Jim Langford heard

Kings Mountain students in All-State Band Clinic

The Kings Mountain District Schools band program was well represented at the South Central All-State Band Clinic at Mooresville High School January 28.

The two-day clinic was cut short due to inclement weather but the students enjoyed a full day of rehearsal which concluded with a public concert on Friday evening.

This year's clinicians were Mrs. Donna Tucker of Roanoke, VA, Mrs. Sonja Smith of Charlotte, and Dr. Frank Battisti of Boston, Mass.

Participating students form Kings Mountain were Jenny Wilson, clarinet; Kevin Tsui, trumpet; D.J. Perry, tuba; Orlando Curry and Brad Deaton, percussion, who performed with the 6-8 Honors Band; Elizabeth Logan, bass clarinet, performed with the 9-10 Honors Band along with Dillon Ingle and Jeremy Owens on percussion; and Drew Neisler, euphonium, performed with the 11-12 Honors Band.

The students are taught by Chris Cole and Gil Doggett. The Kings Mountain 9th Grade and Blazer Bands are presently preparing for the South Central District Concert Contest Festival which will be held at Shelby High School March 29-31. A public concert will be held at B.N. Barnes Auditorium on Tuesday, March 28 at 7:30 p.m. The bands will be performing their concert selections.

Revival at Spencer Mountain church
Revival will be held February 20-23 at Grover Church of God, 201 North Main Street, Grover. Evangelist will be Andy Nicholson. The Sunday night service will be at 6 p.m. and Monday through Wednesday services will begin at 7 p.m. For more information call Pastor Larry Wells at 937-7541.

Herndon to preach at St. Peter Baptist
Raymon Herndon will preach his initial sermon Sunday, February 20 at 6 p.m. at St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church, Grover. The public is invited.
