Jennifer Haynes, left, KMHS senior, and Lacey Ulrich, KMHS sophomore, recently represented KM High's Family, Career and Community Leaders of America at the 2000 national conference in Orlando, FL.

Haynes, Ulrich attend conference

Jennifer Haynes recently attended the 2000 Broyhill Leadership Conference at Belmont Abbey College. She studied goal setting, maintaining enthusiasm, leadership skills and poise. Students from school student organizations within North Carolina and Florida participated in teamwork and leadership building. Jennifer attended the training with seven other North Carolina Family, Career and Community Leaders of America officers.

Jennifer and Lacey Ulrich recently represented the KMHS Family, Career and Community Leaders of America at the 2000 National FCCLA Conference at the Marriott World Center in Orlando, FL.

Over 5,000 FCCLA members from all states and Puerto Rico participated in competitive Star Events and leadership sessions. Jason Dorsey of Leander, TX, gave the motivational speech "The Sky Is No Longer the Limit" at the opening general session.

Jennifer participated in the North Carolina meetings serving as the 2000-01 N.C. FCCLA Vice President. The participants experienced an evening unlike any other at Universal Studio's newest theme park - Islands of Adventure, and also experienced the excitement of the beach and the sounds of the 60's and 70's during an evening jam packed with music, dancing, entertainment, food and fun at the Surfing Safari Gala.

Jennifer and Lacey have returned to Kings Mountain ready to kick off an exciting year for FCCLA at KMHS.
