KM man charged with firing weapon

A Kings Mountain man has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, child abuse and communicating threats in connection with an alleged incident that occurred on January 2 at Carolina Garden Apartments.

Ricky Lee Glover, 40, of 5075 Pennington Place Apt. 36, was taken into custody and placed in the county jail without bond.

According to a report filed by Officer B.M. Bumgardner, Donna Glover and Phillip Williams, both of Apt. 36 Carolina Gardens, alleged that Glover came to their residence to drop off his daughter, entered the residence and brandished a small calibre handgun. They claimed they were both threatened, and that Glover fired three rounds at Mrs. Glover, then left the premises.

Bumgardner said he located three separate bullet holes in the apartment - one in the floor, one in the wall, and one in the ceiling.

The report said Mrs. Glover's 9-year-old daughter was in the room where the shooting took place.

Forged checks keep KM police on the go

Kings Mountain Police are investigating numerous reports of persons attempting to forge checks at businesses.

On January 4, Tandem Staffing reported eight checks stolen in the amount of $5,433.54 had been stolen last April, plus other checks that the company stopped payment on. Some of the checks were cashed at stores in Kings Mountain.
