KM FIRE REPORT

Chase ends in wreck, arrest

Cleon Ware, 30, of Bessemer City was charged with assault with a deadly weapon against a government official, felony speeding to elude arrest, driving while impaired, driving while license revoked, careless and reckless driving, and speeding 100 in a 35 zone following a Saturday accident on Margrace Road. He was arrested under a $15,000 secured bond.

According to a report filed by Ptl. B.S. Biletnikoff and Cpl. Skinner, the vehicle was trying to flee police when it left the road on the right side and struck a highway sign and a small tree. The officers said the vehicle then crossed the highway and left the road again on the left side, traveled about 200 feet along the shoulder and ditch and hit another highway sign and another tree. Damage to highway signs was $75.

Shelby man faces charges in escape

Cleveland County Sheriff's Department has charged Kenneth Wesley Strong, 44, of Shelby with obstructing justice and aiding and abetting the March 3 escape of Larrick Evan Degree of Shelby.

Degree was being held in Cleveland County Detention Center on numerous charges including assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious bodily injury, escape and other charges.

Captain Billy Benton of the Sheriff's Department said Degree escaped custody after assuming the identity of another inmate being held in the County Detention Center. Benton said Strong posted the bond for Degree on March 7 while Degree was posing as Samuel Anderson.

Benton said Anderson was also charged with aiding and abetting the escape of Degree.

Degree was last known to be in North Charleston, SC and is still on the run from authorities, Benton said.

Strong is being held in the Cleveland County Detention Center in lieu of a $15,000 secured bond.
