Kings Mountain men face sex charges

Cleveland County Sheriff's Department Monday arrested a Kings Mountain man on numerous sex charges.

Thomas Alfred Shrewsbury, 51, of 101 Cheryl Court, was charged with one count of first degree kidnapping, three counts of first degree sexual offense, three counts of taking indecent liberties with a child, and two counts of crime against nature.

He was jailed under a $250,000 secured bond in Cleveland County.

According to Investigator R.W. Beaver, the alleged incidents involved a 10-year-old child who is not related to Shrewsbury. Beaver said the incidents were reported to have occurred during the week of May 14 and were reported about a week later.

According to Beaver, the incidents allegedly occurred in Shrewsbury's home.

Another Kings Mountain man has been charged by Kings Mountain police in an alleged sex case.

Daniel Eugene Loftin, 38, of 415 Bennett Street, faces one count of first degree sexual offense and one count of taking indecent liberties with a child. He was jailed under a $50,000 secured bond.

According to Det. Sgt. Lisa Proctor of KMPD, the alleged victim was a 7-year-old girl.
