

KM POLICE REPORT

Police investigating alleged embezzlement, larceny

Kings Mountain Police are investigating an alleged embezzlement of money from Pizza Hut Inc., Highway 74 at Spring Street.

According to a report filed by Ptl. L.D. Howell on July 2, three bags with deposits from June 29 and 30 and July 1 totalling $5,602 cash and $433.90 in checks were allegedly taken from the business by an employee at 11:30 p.m. on July 1 and should have been deposited the following morning. According to the report, the deposits were not made and the employee has not returned to work.

According to Ptl. Howell's report, officers went to a room at a local hotel where the employee was staying and found two deposit bags with the checks and deposit tickets inside; however, the cash was not in the bags. His belongings were still in the room, so fearing a possible abduction the employee has been listed as a missing person.

Police are also investigating the theft of $3,500 from Hidden Treasures, 101 South Battleground Avenue on June 29.

According to a report filed by Cpl. Tony Reeves, an employee said someone went behind the counter at the business and took three bank envelopes containing the money out of her pocketbook.

The employee told police that she was in the process of moving merchandise out of the building and only two other people had been inside the building on that date.

The City of Kings Mountain reported two separate incidents of someone breaking into vehicles and stealing items at the Public Works Building at 1013 North Piedmont Avenue.

At 8:45 a.m. Thursday, Randy Conner of the Public Works Department reported that someone broke into a toolbox on a 1989 Chevrolet truck and stole $500 worth of assorted wrenches, screw drivers and sockets. There was damage reported to the top of the toolbox.

Cpl. Reeves said it appeared the tool box was pried open and the suspect(s) may have gained entry to the Public Works facility through an opening in the fence near the east side of the garage.

At 9:50 a.m., Public Works employee Bob Boles reported that someone had pried open the toolbox on another vehicle and stole $1,000 worth of assorted tools, $150 worth of hand tools, an Allen wrench pack valued at $20, and $500 worth of tools out of the bucket of the vehicle. Other items such as a ratchet, level, set of sockets and sledge hammers were stolen. There was damage to the tool box and a lock.

Police were called to Kings Mountain Hospital on July 3 at 10:56 p.m. in regards to an accidental shooting.

Det. Derek Johnson said Shanna D. Moore, 23, of 48 Julian St. Apt. B dropped a handgun on the ground at her residence, and when it hit the ground it discharged and hit her in the left arm. Johnson said she was hospitalized overnight for treatment and released the next day.

Several more Kings Mountain residents were served with summons last week to appear in court for alleged violation of city codes.

All are connected to businesses that operate video poker machines. Their court date is July 27.

They included William E. Parker, 48, 101 Goldrun Court, two count of city ordinance violation; Lynn F. Heath, 27, 104 Kimberly Lane, one count of city code/zoning violation; Robert Michael Heath, 49, 104 Kimberly Lane, two counts city ordinance violation; William Thomas, 50, P.O. Box 963, one count operating arcade without a permit and one count operating business without a privilege license; and Charles Bowen, 51, 909 First Street, one count each of city code/zoning violation and city ordinance violation.
