BRIEFS

Bloodmobile August 2 at Grace Methodist

There will be a bloodmobile at Grace United Methodist Church, Kings Mountain, August 2 from 1:30-6 p.m.

All blood types are needed to replenish a dangerously low blood supply, according to Sandi Bolick of the American Red Cross.

To donate, one must be at least 17 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds and be in general good health.

For more information call 487-8594.

Bolick said this may be the most critical period for blood collections in Cleveland County history.

"Blood collections are traditionally low during the summer, with many regular donors on vacation and away from normal routines," she said. "But the fact that Cleveland County has lost sponsors due to plant closings and layoffs has added an extra problem for collecting the blood our region and area hospitals need."

Advance tickets are available from members of the Russell Fellowship Sunday School class, or by calling Larry Hamrick at 739-5405, Tim Miller at 739-5202, or the church office at 739-2471. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children 10 and under. Tickets can also be purchased at the door.

Funds benefit several mission projects that the class undertakes, including a yearly Christmas project. The class uses most of the funds to provide Christmas presents for area children who may otherwise not receive gifts. The funds are divided among class members who shop for the children, buying popular and educational toys, school supplies, clothing, blankets, and toiletries depending on the ages of the children. School counselors provide information to the church on families in need, then the families are asked if they would like to receive help and what they need.

For more information or to help with the project, call Florrie Hamrick at 739-5405.
