Relay for Life
kickoff Feb. 18

The kick off celebration for the 2002 Kings Mountain Relay for Life will be Monday, February 18 at 6 p.m. at the H. Lawrence Patrick Senior Life and Conference Center, 909 East King Street, Kings Mountain. The public is invited. All members of the planning committee are urged to attend, and all groups planning to participate are asked to have a representative present.

Reservations should be made by calling the American Cancer Society Cleveland County Chapter at 482-1566.

Ceramics class set at Senior Center

A ceramics class will begin February 5 from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Shelby Senior Center, 1266 Fallston Road, Shelby.

The class will run for six weeks. The basic fee is $40. For more information call Shirley Bridges at 482-3488.

Man charged in wife's killing

John Bryan Moore of Grover faces a murder charge in the death of his wife on January 27.

According to Lt. Gary Gold of the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department, Moore called Cleveland County Communications on January 25 at 12:25 a.m. and reported that his wife had been shot.

Gold said deputies and paramedics responded and found Sherry Briggs Moore inside the residence with a gunshot wound to the abdomen. She died later at Cleveland Regional Medical Center.

Moore was jailed without bond.

Lake Commission to meet February 5

The John M. Moss Reservoir Commission will meet Tuesday, Feb. 5 at 6 p.m. at Kings Mountain City Hall.

The committee will discuss pier, seawall and dredging; revenues and expenditures, and uses without leases.

KM doctor to lead
seminar on surgery

M. Sean Freeman, M.D., will offer a free educational seminar on Tuesday, Feb. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at Ballantyne Resort in Charlotte.

Anyone interested in learning about the latest innovations in facial cosmetic surgery is invited to attend. To reserve a seat or for more information, call 734-0511.

Dr. Freeman has written numerous articles and book chapters and has lectured within the U.S. and abroad. For more than 12 years, he has limited his practice to cosmetic and reconstructive surgery of the head and neck.

He received a Fellowship in plastic surgery at Washington University. He also completed a residency in Head and Neck Surgery at the University of Miami School of Medicine. He is board-certified by the American Board of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. Dr. Freeman practiced in Charlotte for many years until he opened The Center for Facial Plastic and Laser Surgery in Kings Mountain last year.

City seeks applications for housing rehab loans

The City of Kings Mountain is accepting applications from owner-occupants for housing assistance under the City's Single Family Housing Rehabilitation Program.

The assistance will be in the form of principal only deferred payment loans which may be used to rehabilitate single family, detached, substandard site-built homes to meet HUD's Housing Quality Standards, NCHFA's Energy Standards, and the Minimum Housing Code. Mobile homes and multi-family dwellings are not eligible.

To be eligible, homes must be owner-occupied, qualified as moderately deteriorated, must be located in the city limits of Kings Mountain, and the household must meet program income and special needs requirements.

Income from all sources must not exceed the following levels: 1-person household, $16,350; 2-persons, $18,700; 3 persons, $21,000; 4 persons, $23,350; 5 persons, $25,200; 6 persons, $27,100; 7 persons, $28,950; and 8 persons, $30,800.

To apply or for more information call Marge Bender at 704-660-5531 or leave your name and phone number with Benchmark, Inc. at 1-800-650-3925. Pre-applications will be processed on a first come, first served basis; however, priority for assistance will be given based on income and special need targeting such as elderly, disabled, large families, and single-parent households.

Hearing impaired persons desiring more information should call the North Carolina Relay Number for the Deaf at 1-800-735-8262.
