Jennifer Smith wins Whitener piano scholarship competition

Jennifer Smith won the General Federation of Women's Clubs of North Carolina District III Whitener Piano Scholarship competition recently held at the Kings Mountain Woman's Club.

Smith will compete on March 23 at the State Arts Festival for the prestigious Whitener Scholarship. The scholarship in piano is $1,000 per year, awarded annually at the State Arts Festival in Winston-Salem. Its period of tenure is four years.

Smith is the daughter of David and Nancy Smith of Kings Mountain and has been studying piano for 11 years. She is presently studying with John Whitaker of the Southern Park Music School in Charlotte. She has also studied with Libby Putnam and Linda Dixon of Kings Mountain.

She said her aspirations are to be a concert pianist. She said she would like to study at Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore, MD. She has been offered scholarships at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and University of North Carolina at Greensboro music departments.

She recently played with the Charlotte Civic Orchestra and will play with the Charlotte Symphony in April. She plays for the early service at First Baptist Church in Kings Mountain and also plays for the Senior Adult Choir each Tuesday morning. She won a scholarship to attend the Summer Brevard Music Center last summer.
