Cpl. Jimmy Van Valen participates in exercise

Marine Corps Cpl. Jimmy d. Van Valen, son of Loretta L. Fox of Landing, NJ and James D. Van Valen of Kings Mountain, recently participated in exercise Sea Soldier '02 while assigned to the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit, home based at Camp Pendleton, CA.

Marines honed their skills during the 12-day live-fire training exercise with soldiers from the Western Frontier Regiment of the Royal Army of Oman. Marines employed medium and heavy machine guns, grenades, mortars, pyrotechnics, demolitions and shoulder-fired anti-tank munitions.

The exercise was performed more than two weeks after Van Valen's unit successfully completed offensive raids against Taliban and Al-Qaeda forces during Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan.

Van Valen is a 2000 graduate of Roxbury High School of Succasunna, NJ. He joined the Marines in July 2000.

Real to Reel film festival slated at Joy

The Cleveland County Arts Council will present its third annual Real to Reel Film and Video Festival, and the screenings will be July 18-21 at 7 p.m. at the Joy Performance Center, Railroad Avenue, Kings Mountain.

Many of the films are of a mature theme and parents are encouraged to call the Arts Council at 484-2787 for questions and information.

There will also be an installation exhibition at the Arts Center in Shelby July 13-21. The exhibit will feature film memorabilia, antique cameras and reels, projectors, and movie stills.

The festival's mission is to offer a forum for independent film, video and multimedia artists to showcase their talents and garner award winning name recognition. Over 70 films of all genres from all over the U.S. and several foreign countries have poured into Cleveland County.

There will be a "Night With The Stars" premier party on Saturday, July 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Arts Center.

The evening's festivities include a sneak preview of the films that will be screened, food and beverages, and a silent auction. Items such as scripts from movies, trips to famous movie locations, movie passes and movie memorabilia will be available to the highest bidder at the end of the week. Tickets are $10 and reservations are encouraged.
