

Adams held in the Cleveland County jail under $200,000 bond after arrest

A Kings Mountain man is in Cleveland County Jail under a $200,000 bond after being charged in two burglaries that occurred within hours of each other last Wednesday.

Charged with the crimes was James Andawn Adams, 22, of 181 Crown Court.

The two separate incidents occurred at 3F Kingswood Apartments at 200 Spruce St., and 218 Morris Street.

According to Captain Derek

Johnson, at 4 a.m. someone entered 3F Kingswood Apartments through a window, stole two pocketbooks and went out a rear door.

Johnson said the resident, who heard the door shut, caught him outside going through her pocketbook and counting her money. They engaged in a brief wrestling match and she got her pocketbook and some of the money back, and the suspect ran.

Johnson said the resident identified Adams as the burglar.

He was charged with one count of felony first degree burglary in that incident.

About two hours later, Johnson said someone broke through a window at a home at 218 Morris Street and stole pocketbooks and keys to vehicles, and went outside and stole a vehicle.

When something happened to that car, Johnson said he returned to the same residence and stole a second car.

Adams has been charged with first degree burglary, larceny and two counts of larceny of a vehicle in that case.

Police are also investigating an armed robbery that occurred Thursday at the intersection of Parker and Sims Streets.

According to a report filed by Officer Larry Ware, Robert Alan Crofts of 201 Harbor Springs Lane said that he was having problems with his car and stopped to check the engine.

He reportedly was looking at the engine when an unknown subject approached him from the rear and stuck an object that he believed to be a gun in his back, and demanded money. He said he took money out of both front pockets and laid it on the fender, and the suspect reached into his rear pocket and took his wallet.

Some of the money and personal checks belonged to Crofts' employer, Pizza Hut.
