Lindsay, Upton, Beaver, and Hawkins win Rotary tourney

William Lindsay, Donald Upton, Jerry Beaver and Leonard Hawkins shot a 17-under-par 55 Friday to win the annual Kings Mountain Rotary Club Golf Tournament at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Seventy-two golfers competed in the Captain's Choice event to raise money for scholarships for Kings Mountain High School students. Every team in the tournament finished below par.

Second place in the first flight went to Rich Sari, Ron Davidson, William Mabry and Steve Edsall. They completed for a 57. Finishing third were Ronnie Wilson, Toney Wells, Bryant Wells and Brad Wilson with a 59.

Huitt Reep, Mike Reep, Yates Reep and Andrew Reep won the first flight in a playoff over Brian Butler, Mark Hodges, Butch Kerns and Rusty Carriger. Both teams shot 65.

Third place went to Steve Padgett, Darrell Keller, Chip Sloan and Davis Brown, who shot a 66 and finished in a tie with the teams of Bill Sherwood, Todd Sherwood and Rick Stroupe; Jake Dixon, Greg Dixon, Bud Rhea and Mark Dixon; and Zack Stroupe, Ken Eddins, Larry McDaniel and Jeff Gordon.

Closest to the pin winners on the par 3 holes were Jean Walker on #5, Ron Davidson on #8, Peggy Jackson on #16 and Dave Howe on #17.

Longest drive winners were Doris Cloninger on #2 and David Bolin on #11.

Eighteenth place with a score of one-under 71 were Jay Rhodes, Brian Wiggins, Matt Triplett and Earl Lutz.

Blalock-Sellers team wins Williams Memorial tourney

Dub Blalock, Todd Blalock, Bill Sellers and Rodney Sellers finished with a 17-under-par 55 to win the sixth annual Blair Williams Memorial Golf Tournament Saturday at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Nineteen four-person teams entered the annual event, which raises money for missions programs at First Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, where Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams, was an active member prior to his tragic death in 1996.

Second place with a score of 56 were Scott Foy, Mark Foy, Barney Cannon and Scott Spears. Tom Smith, Travis Johnson, Rodney McGinnis and Roland Rohr took third place in a playoff over Jeff Johnson, Mike Sues, Dan Smith and Richard Pro. Both teams shot 59.

Closest to the pin winners on the par three holes were Andy Majors, John Goforth, Tyler Warren and Tim Henson.

Longest drive winner was Charles Bullock. Closest to the creek on hole number 15 was Chris Miller. Chip Wilson had the most accurate drive on #11, and Barney Cannon sank the longest putt on #18.
