KM POLICE REPORT

Man with ax robs store

A man armed with an ax stole an undetermined amount of money from the Express Store at 716 North Cleveland Avenue Friday. The suspect is described as a white man, approximately 5'6" and 120 pounds. He was wearing a ski mask. According to Captain Derek Johnson of Kings Mountain Police Department, the man entered the front door, demanded money from the clerk, and the clerk complied. The man exited the building through the same door.

No one was hurt. KMPD also reported a break-in and larceny at Saturn Express, 908 S. Battleground, where over $10,000 worth of cigarettes were stolen.

According to Ptl. Mark Butler's report, 355 cartons of cigarettes valued at $10,650 were stolen during the night Saturday.

Officer Butler responded to the store when an alarm sounded. He found the door on the east side of the business open, but there were no suspects.

An undetermined amount of money was also stolen.

A breaking and entering and larceny was also reported at Little Dan's, 726 York Rd., on Thursday.

According to police reports, a newspaper delivery man flagged down a policeman after he noticed the front door had been forced open.

There was no report on items missing.
