9/11 ceremony held at East Elementary

East Elementary School held a September 11th ceremony Wednesday morning. Students and staff wore red, white and blue and gathered around the flag pole to sing the National Anthem and say the Pledge of Allegiance.

EMS workers attended, dressed in their uniforms. They stood at the flag pole with Mayor Rick Murphrey, who spoke to the students. Principal Jerry Hoyle asked the students to remember the incidents that occurred on September 11, 2002.

Parents who are policemen, firemen and

The group observed a moment of silence.
