

KM FACES & PLACES

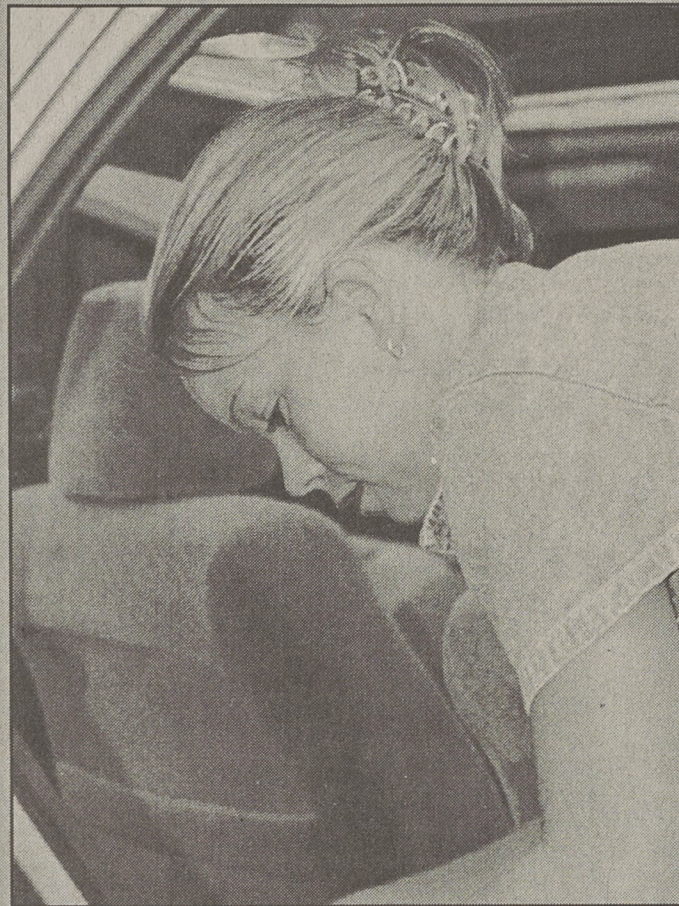

• By Ben Ledbetter

Hayley Flynn directs the Kings Mountain High band in halftime performance at last week's football game.

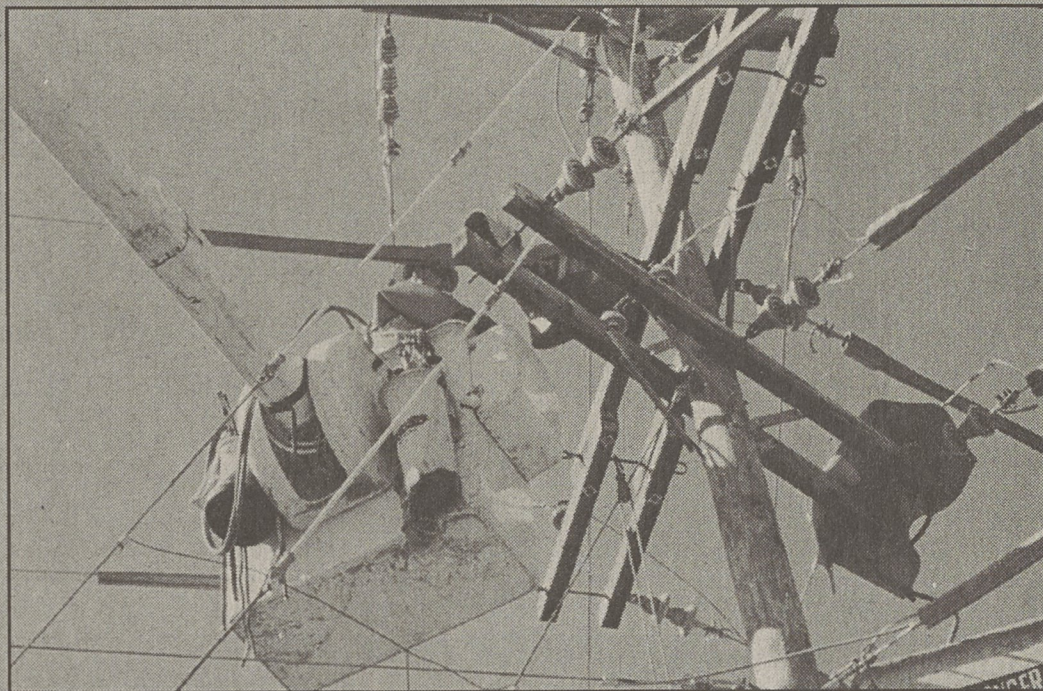

Boyd Shipman gets ready to mow the lawn at his Kings Mountain home.

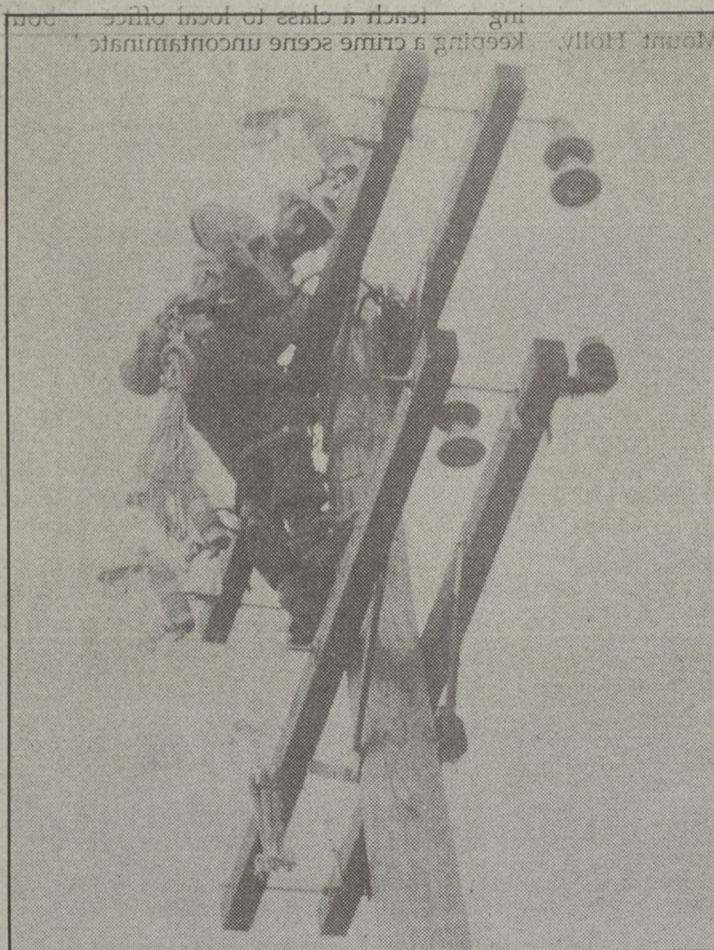

BEN LEDBETTER / THE HERALD
Michelle Johnson vacuums her car at a car wash in Grover.

BEN LEDBETTER / THE HERALD
Nathan McRee mows the lawn at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

City of Kings Mountain employee Bob Boles does some work on a power line on Phifer Road.

BEN LEDBETTER / THE HERALD
Johnny Putnam does work on a power pole at the site of Kings Mountain's LEC located on Kings Mountain Boulevard.

Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper

$5
Proceeds
Benefit
KM Youth

Friday September 27th

5:00-7:00 pm in

Kings Mountain

High School Cafeteria

Register
at the Door
for a Drawing for a TV/VCR
Combo

Before the Kings Mountain Mountaineer
vs. Fred T. Foard Football Game
Thank You

The Kiwanis Club of Kings Mountain would like to thank the following businesses for their support of Kiwanis Charities.

Remember,
Together "We Build"

Remember,
Together "We Build"

BF Maner Insurance
Ballew Yarns
Blackmer & Company
Bridges Auto Parts
Bridges Hardware
Central Carolina Bank
Dellingers Jewel Shop
Dicey Fabrics
First Charter Bank
First National Bank
Foothills Podiatry
Foust Textiles
George B. Thomasson PA

Harris Funeral Home
J.E. Herndon
John Caveny
Kings Mountain Pediatrics
Kings Mountain Animal Hospital
Neisler Brothers
Oglebay Norton
Paul Hendricks, Jr. DDS
J.O. Plonk, Jr.
Plonk Tire
Timm's Furniture
Warlick & Hamrick

In the last year Kiwanis Charities has received over $7500 of your money returned to the community. These projects include... Terrific Kids, Kings Mountain Historical Museum, National Foundation for Transplants and the Life Enrichment Center, to name a few!

Under New Ownership

- Call For Corporate Rates
- Rooms Available For Out of Town Guests
Coming In for Weddings, Family
Reunions, Class Reunions
- Conference Area Available
- Refurbished Rooms
- Personalized Service
- Convenient to Shelby, Gastonia & Gaffney
720 A York Road, I-85 & 161 Exit 8
Kings Mountain, North Carolina

704-739-7070

Don Pandya, Manager