Goforth receives chancellor's award

Casey Lynn Goforth, spring 2002 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, has been recognized by Chancellor James R. Leutze as a recipient of the Chancellor's Achievement Award.

To be qualified for this honor, one must earn all A's while carrying 15 or more credit hours.

Casey teaches fifth grade at Kings Mountain Intermediate School. She is the daughter of Wayne and Lynn Brown of Shelby and Rocky and Linda Goforth of Smyrna, SC. Grandparents are Tom and Iva Beam, formerly of Lady Lake, FL, and Gene and Fay Goforth of Kings Mountain.

Tammy Thomas Student of Month

Tammy Thomas has been named Student of the Month for September at Kings Mountain High School.

Tammy was nominated by Welding I teachers Pat Beck and Ed Herndon.

She is the daughter of Tammy and Billy Thomas. After school she enjoys playing softball and volunteering with the Kings Mountain Rescue Squad.

Elizabeth Smith Student of Month

Elizabeth Smith has been selected as the October Career and Technical Education Student of the Month at Kings Mountain High School.

Elizabeth is a senior in the Early Education II class. She was nominated for the award by Janet Fleming, Family and Consumer Science teacher.

Elizabeth's favorite subjects are Early Childhood Education, Chemcom, Sign Language, and Computer Applications. After school she is employed part-time at Winn-Dixie. She hopes to attend a community college and one day own and manage a day care center.

She is the daughter of Fran and Kenneth Smith.

Career Day set at Cleveland CC

Cleveland Community College will host Career Day Thursday, October 10.

Approximately 2,000 juniors and seniors from Kings Mountain, Burns, Crest and Shelby high schools will be on the CCC campus to explore career options.

Each student is pre-registered for three sessions. Each 40-minute session will be a workshop conducted by an expert in the field.

Students have 48 different careers to choose from including business, education, journalism, music, real estate and trucking. Students will have the opportunity to ask questions from each presenter.

The first session begins at 9 a.m. and the final session concludes at 11:30 a.m.

Craft show set in Morganton

The Grace Hospital Guild is accepting applications for the 13th annual Holiday Show and Sale, which will be held November 23 in the Collett Street Recreation Center in Morganton.

Over 120 booths are available. Booths are 10 x 10 and 10 x 20.

The Guild is seeking artists and crafters creating such items as stained glass, pottery, basketry, wood turning, weaving, fine arts, photography, blacksmithing, holiday crafts, nature crafts, herbs/plants, etchings, leather goods and handcrafted jewelry. No mass produced or manufactured items will be accepted.

Over 1,500 shoppers attend the event annually. Its hours will be 9 a.m.-4 p.m.
