

COOKING CORNER

(Ed. note - The recipes in today's cooking columns come from "Something Old, Something New," a cookbook published by The White Plains Shrinettes.)

CHICKEN PIE
MARGARET PAYNE
2 1/2 lb. chicken, cooked and deboned
1/4 c. broth
1 can cream of chicken soup
Batter:
1 stick margarine
1 c. milk
1 c. self-rising flour
1 Tbsp. salt
1 Tbsp. pepper
1 Tbsp. baking powder
Mix together broth and soup. Let this come to boil. Put chicken in casserole dish and pour soup mixture on top. Pour batter mixture on chicken mixture. Bake at 425 degrees for 30 minutes.

PORK CHOPS SUPREME
DOT GANTT
6 or 8 pork chops
3 med. potatoes
1 med. onion
1 qt. tomatos
3/4 tsp. crushed basil
Brown pork chops. Peel and slice potatoes and onions; boil about 5 minutes. Drain. Place tomatos and basil in bottom of pan. Layer potatoes and onions. Place pork chops on top. Cover and bake at 350 degrees 45 minutes until potatoes are done.

MEAT LOAF
JEAN KIRBY
1 c. tomato juice
3/4 c. Quaker oats, quick or old-fashioned, uncooked
1 egg or egg white
1/4 c. chopped onion
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 1/2 lb. lean ground beef
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Combine all ingredients, except ground beef. Mix well. Add ground beef; mix lightly but thoroughly. Press into 8x14 inch pan. Bake one hour. Drain. Let stand 5 minutes.

PECAN PIE
TERRIE MOORE
1/3 cup melted butter
1 c. sugar
1 c. white Karo syrup
4 eggs
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
1 c. chopped pecans
1 (9 inch) unbaked pie shell
Mix all ingredients, except pie crust, together. Pour into crust and bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour or until set.

SQUASH CASSEROLE
DELANE GUYTON
3 or 4 yellow squash
1 med. onion
2 eggs
1 1/2 c. bread crumbs
1/2 stick margarine
1/2 cup grated cheese
1 can cream of chicken soup salt and pepper
Cook squash and onions together. Mix all ingredients.

Place in baking dish. Add crumbs and cheese on top. Bake at 350 degrees 40 to 45 minutes, same as macaroni and cheese.

HASH BROWN CASSE-ROLE
JUDY GRINDSTAFF
2 lb. frozen hash brown potatoes
1/2 c. melted margarine
1 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. salt
2 cans celery soup
1 (8 oz.) carton sour cream
2 c. grated sharp cheese
1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, cubed
Topping:
2 1/2 to 3 c. Special K or corn flakes
1/3 c. melted margarine
Defrost potatoes. Toss with margarine, salt and pepper. Mix together remaining ingredients and add to potatoes. Place in 9x13 inch casserole dish. Put topping on casserole. Bake uncovered at 300 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes.

CHURCH NEWS

Community Thanksgiving service Wednesday night at KM Baptist

BY ABIGAIL WOLFORD
Staff Writer

A community Thanksgiving worship service will be held at Kings Mountain Baptist Church at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, November 27. The music will start at 6:30 p.m.

"It's an opportunity for all people—even if they don't belong to a church—it's an opportunity to give thanks to God for what he has done," said Rev. Moses Neuman of World Care Ministries, one of the organizers of the service.

Each year the service is hosted by a different church in the Kings Mountain Ministerial Association, said Rev. Jeff Hensley, who has been the pastor at Kings Mountain Baptist Church for four months.

"It's been several years since we've hosted the services. My congregation doesn't remember the last time," he said. The Kings Mountain Baptist Church will be a convenient location for most, though, because it is centrally located, he said.

The service has taken place for many years now, said Neuman, although he has not always been involved.

"I've been directly involved for about five years, but it's been going on for years, even before I was a part of the Kings Mountain Association," said Neuman.

The planners of the service will try to meet the needs of all of the different denominations and groups represented in the Association. Different kinds of music will be played, and various speakers will bring the message. Baptists, United Methodists, Lutherans, Wesleyans, and Presbyterians, among others, are represented in the Association. All of the denominations represented in the Association will participate in the service.

"All churches are invited. We're trying to get all the churches in Kings Mountain to come," said Neuman.

"It's an ecumenical event, so it naturally involves a lot of different denominations and churches," said Hensley.

According to Rev. John Houze, who is head of the Ministerial Association, the service is a time for church members around the area to see their diversity and yet see what they have in common.

"It's an opportunity for the community to come together and share thanks," said Houze.

This year the focus of the service will be on youth ministries, said Hensley. Two youth ministers, Brad Anderson from Boyce Memorial Associate Reformed Presbyterian and Phil Burton from the Family Worship Center, will speak at the service. Youth ministers Chuck McNeilly of David Baptist Church and Kenneth Hopper of Peoples Baptist Church will also participate in the service.

The Kings Mountain Crisis Ministry will also play an important part in the service. Crisis Ministry Director Rebecca Lineberger will speak at the service, and an offering will be received to benefit the Crisis Ministry, said Neuman.

"While we focus on gifts and blessings, it's also good to think about our neighbors," said Hensley.

The Kings Mountain Ministerial Association supports the center through frequent donations and referrals. The Crisis Ministry is, in fact, a part of the Kings Mountain Ministerial Association, said Hensley.

"It provides churches with opportunities to cooperatively give," said Hensley. "It is a centralized location where needs can be met and addressed."
