

KM POLICE REPORT

Man shot Tuesday at KM apartment

A Kings Mountain man is in Gaston Memorial Hospital recovering from injuries he sustained in a shooting incident early Tuesday morning.

According to Cpl. S.D. Shockley of Kings Mountain Police Department, Corrie Odums, 21, of 437 Hillway Drive, was shot three times in the "lower extremities" at Kingswood Apartments in Kings Mountain. A 9 millimeter handgun was used, Shockley said.

According to Shockley, when police arrived at the apartment complex at 12:50 a.m. Odums had left the scene. He was located about 30 minutes later at Pine Manor Apartments on Charles Street and transported to Gaston Memorial.

He is listed in stable condition.

Shockley said Odums is cooperating with police investigators and they have a suspect. Charges are expected soon, he said.
