find Tavorris Jolly in the end zone behind two KM defenders for a 44-yard touchdown pass and a 24-3 lead.

The Mountaineers looked like an entirely different team in the second half. The offense moved the ball and the defense almost completely took away Shelby's bread and butter play, the buck sweep.

KM's Drew Gibson sacked Brooks to force a punt on Shelby's first possession of the second half, and Kings Mountain used strong blocking by its offensive line and fullback J.J. McClain to start springing Sidney Goode for big gains on power sweeps. Goode, who finished with a career high 135 yards rushing, scored on a 34-yard run to cut the Shelby margin to 24-10 with 4:07 left in the third period.

While the Mountaineers were having better success against the Shelby defense, their own defense was still having trouble stopping the Lions and the second half turned into a touchdown trading game.

Shelby responded to Goode's TD by marching 66 yards to score on a seven yard run by Jolly which made the score 31-10.

Kings Mountain drove 67 yards early in the fourth quarter and Goode scored from three yards out to make the score 31-17.

Shelby recovered an onside kick at the KM 49 and Brooks immediately hit sophomore wide receiver Patrick Tate for 37 yards to set up Jolly's 12-yard touchdown run which gave the Lions a 38-17 lead.

Kings Mountain drove 42 yards for its final touchdown, with quarterback Montrell Banks completing three passes to set up a seven-yard touchdown run by Goode with 2:58 remaining. Farquharson said the coaches challenged the Mounties at halftime to come out and play better and try to get in a position to win.

"And they did that," he said, "but we're not to the point where we can afford to trade score for score with somebody. When they decide they want to put together two halves of playing both good offense and good defense they're going to be a good football team. They showed signs of a good football team but they've got to get past that hurdle.

"I think we did some things that were very positive," he added. "We threw for a hundred yards and when you're able to run the sweep on Shelby with the kind of speed they have on the outside that's got to be a positive. We've got to get better at doing that. We have to establish a run and complete a high percentage of passes, then we'll be a little bit better balanced."

Farquharson said. "It's not going to be a cakewalk by any stretch of the imagination."

Farquharson said he plans some personnel changes this week in hopes of returning to more of a two-platoon system. John Gwinn, who has been a backup line-backer and fullback, will move into a defensive tackle position, defensive end Steven Grant will move to linebacker, and Aaron Bolton will move back to his corner position.

"We've got those offensive linemen pretty secure in their position, so we're going to roll some young kids in there on defense to give us more of a pass rush and give us more pressure on the quarterback," Farquharson said.

This will be Foard's homecoming game, and Farquharson figures that will also help motivate the Tigers.

"I expect them to be excited," he said. "I think they feel like after watching us that they can play with us and beat us. So we've got our work cut out."

28-6 and South Point 49-0). Two weeks ago they lost a heartbreaker to Gastonia Forestview 17-12 and last week they recovered from a sluggish start to put up an impressive second half showing in a 38-24 loss to Shelby.

Foard, typically a running team in the past, has been throwing the ball more this year and that concerns Farquharson, whose team has given up 727 yards through the air in four games, including 322 to East Gaston and 189 to Shelby.

Van Proctor, a four-year starter, is the Tigers' quarterback.

"They have a very good passing game," says Farquharson. "That seems to be their strength. He's tall and throws the ball well and that's one of the things that has given us some trouble. That's an area we have to improve on."

The Tigers, coming off a 2-9 season, are 1-3. They defeated West Lincoln 30-14 in their opener but have lost consecutive games to Bunker Hill 14-7, Maiden 48-16 and Bandys 56-21.

"They've played some good teams," Farquharson said. "So it's going to be one of those situations where our kids have to come to play."

Convincing his players that they have to get off to a good start is something Farquharson said the coaches have dealt with all year without success.

"We're going to have to work on convincing them that this is a new and improved Fred T. Foard,"
