CLUB NEWS

Club remembers organization

Town and Country Garden Club met December 11 at First Presbyterian Church.

Minutes that were compiled in 1982 by Mrs. George W. Moss were read. The minutes gave information on the organization of Town and Country Garden Club on December 11, 1952 at the home of Mrs. J.G. Darracott with Mrs. W.M. Moorhead acting as temporary president.

Committees were appointed to form a constitution with by-laws and to nominate officers. The first officers to be elected were Mrs. Jacob Mauney, president; Mrs. W.T. Weir, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Miller, secretary; and Mrs. Charles Dilling, treasurer.

Charter members were Mrs. J.H. Arthur, Mrs. W.E. Blakeley, Mrs. W.D. Blanton, Mrs. H.L. Campbell, Mrs. J.G.

Darracott, Mrs. Fred E. Finger Sr., Mrs. Manley Fuller, Mrs. E.W. Griffin Sr., Miss Helen Hay, Mrs. N.F. McGill Sr., Mrs. Jacob Mauney, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. W.M. Moorhead, Mrs. O.W. Myers, Mrs. Baxter Payseur, Mrs. Charles Thomasson, Mrs. Bruce Thorburn, Mrs. S.S. Weir Jr., and Mrs. W.T. Weir. Mrs. Charles G. Dilling joined the club in February, 1953, bringing the membership to 20. In October, 1953, Mrs. T. Grady Patterson became a member when Mrs. Manley Fuller moved away. The name of the club was suggested by Mrs. O.W. Myers.

As the name of charter members were read, club president Connie Bell lit a candle for each member. The candles adorned an anniversary cake made especially for the 51st anniversary of the club.

After the lighting of candles, the members read the Club Collect in honor of the members that formed the club.

Hostess was Susan Gibson. She served refreshments of hot dogs and all the trimmings, a tradition at the December meeting.

Members began working on tray favors for Kings Mountain Hospital and White Oak Manor. The favors are made of live greenery from club members' yards. The are shaped in containers and adorned with red ribbons, cut Christmas cards and candy canes. Seventy-five decorations were made by the members. Dot Dixon, Susan Gibson and Lou Ballew delivered the favors to the facilities. This is a tradition developed through the years to help enlighten hospital patients at Christmas.

The 35-voice Kings Mountain Senior Center Choir sang numerous Christmas hymns at Friday's annual senior Christmas party at the H. Lawrence Patrick Senior Life and Conference Center. A packed house attended the event, which included entertainment, readings, door prizes and refreshments.
