Holland to receive scouting award

Joe Holland will be recognized for his service to the Cub Scout program at East Elementary School at the seventh annual Friends of Scouting Dinner Tuesday, March 30 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church Family Life Center. The meal and program are free and the public is invited. However,persons planning to attend should call Ronnie Hawkins or Brad Ellis at Harris Funeral Home (739-2591) for reservations. Holland is in his 10th year as Cub Master at East School and was also instrumental in starting a troop at Second

HOLLAND

Baptist Church. He and his wife, Lori, have two children, Lindsey, 15, and Katie 9.

Holland began his scouting career as a Bear Den leader in Pack 93 in August 1996. He worked with Bear Den for one year and became Cub Master in 1997. Pack 93 was organized in the fall of 1992.

Pack 93 has had as many as 96 boys and 28 leaders registered The budget has increased from $250 when first started to $5,000 a year currently.

The Pack graduates 98 percent of all registered scouts each year.

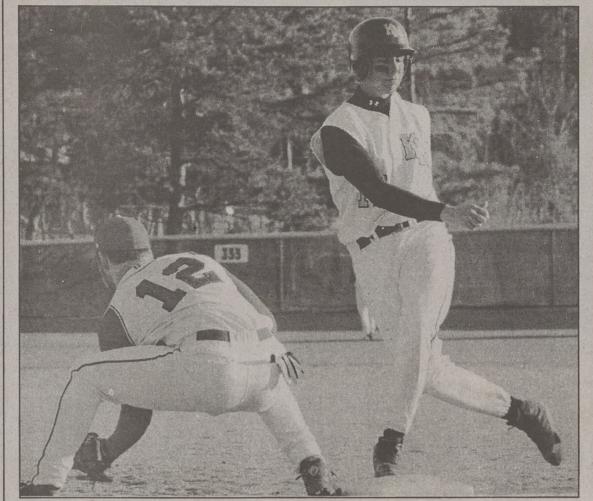

The Pack has been honored as a Quality Unit for five out of eight years, and has been recognized as Pack of the Year.

The Pack has awarded as many as 16 Arrow of Light (Cub Scouts highest honor) in a single year.

Troop 93 at Second Baptist was formed with leaders from Pack 93. The Pack has two camp outs a year and participates in the Scouting for Food each fall to help stock the Kings Mountain Crisis Ministry food closet.

Pack 93 continues to grow in numbers and in involvement.

Boys & Girls of Spring
