WHEN RUNNING AN AD.....Please read your ad the first week it runs. Occasionally, errors occur, so if you should find a mistake in your ad, please let us know right away. We'll be happy to make the necessary changes. Republic Newspapers assumes no financial responsibility for errors or omissions of copy. It is your responsibility to read your ad or either on the proof for display ads or the first week it runs for classified line ads and notify us of any such errors. We reserve the right to adjust in full any error by publishing a corrected insertion. All copy must be approved by the newspaper, which reserves the right to request changes, reject or properly classify an ad. Publisher reserves the right to cancel any ad at any time. All advertising is subject to credit approval.

WRITING AN AD
Here are some key points about writing an ad:
1. Attract the reader's attention with your headline or opening statement.
2. Include all essential facts about your product, especially the price. Usually the ad with the most complete description will draw the best results.
3. Include your phone number and the best time to call. You can place your ad in 5 publications with one phone call.
