Queen gets UNC scholarship

Alex Queen of Kings Mountain has been selected to receive a Carolinas Scholars Award at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

QUEEN

The award represents the most academically competitive of scholarships sponsored by the university. In addition to superior academic achievement, self-direction and motivation for learning are chief selection criteria.

The program provides recipients with faculty mentors, leadership experience and other academic enrichment opportunities in addition to the $30,000 scholarship for tuition, room, board and related fees. Queen also received a Senator Harry M. Byrd Scholarship worth $6,000 for study at UNC.

Queen is the salutatorian for the Class of 2004 at Charlotte Catholic High School where he received the Academic Excellence Award in Spanish and was voted "Most Likely to Succeed." While at Charlotte Catholic, Queen served as president of the High-Q Club, member of the Federal Reserve Challenge Team and World Quest Competition Team. He was also a member of the National Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society and Latin Club. He was co-captain of the Catholic swim team and was all-conference every year and a two-time winner of the Conference Swimmer of the Year Award. He achieved state championships in the 100-yard butterfly and 100-yard backstroke, setting a state record for the 1A/2A division.

Queen founded and hosted the Senior Trivia Bowl at H. Lawrence Patrick Senior Center in Kings Mountain. He is the son of Patsy and Allen Queen and plans to major in international studies and languages at UNC to prepare for a career in international law.

KMH Auxiliary gives scholarships

The Kings Mountain Hospital Auxiliary has awarded two $2,000 scholarships to Kings Mountain High School graduates who are enrolling in nursing programs.

Carleia Sherer Owens and Ashley Elizabeth McDaniel are this year's recipients. Owens is the daughter of Sylvia Watkins Byers. McDaniel's parents are Timothy S. and Laura W. McDaniel.

Owens will attend the University of North Carolina

Charlotte.

While in high school, she was active in band, SAVE, SADD, NV-THS and was a health education career student. She is active in her church. Owens' grandmother was also a nurse.

OWENS

McDaniel will attend

McDANIEL

Western Carolina University. At KMHS, she was active in band, color guard, pep band, Beta, FCA, SAVE, SADD and HECS. She played volleyball and junior olympics volleyball for four years. McDaniel was honored at the academic awards banquet. She was a Renaissance Gold/Silver card holder for four years and was a senior homecoming nominee.

McDaniel is president of her church youth group and has participated in three World Changers trips. She is a member of the chair and clown ministries.

The scholarship is funded by the auxiliary's Tree of Love. The scholarship is in its seventh year. The money in $500 increments based on continued academic performance.

Church plans preschool

Central United Methodist Church is assessing the need for a morning preschool in this area.

Tentative plans call for the school operating a two day per week program for 2-year-olds, a three day per week program for three-year-olds and a five day per week program for four-year-olds.

Each class will have a teacher and an assistant and will be limited to 10 children. The program will incorporate Bible study, basic skills and play.

Interested parents should call the church by June 21 at 704-739-2471, extension 10 or go online to cumcpreschool@carolina.rr.com. The number and ages of children should be included on any messages left. Fees will be determined once interest in established. The school is slated to open by fall.
