WRECK

Thomas Greene of Kings Mountain told police he was traveling west on US 74 Bypass when a red van merged into his lane of travel and forced him off the road. His vehicle then crossed the road and ran off the right side, went up an embankment and overturned. There were no injuries reported. Damage to the vehicle was $9,000.

CANIPE

Canipe said, pointing to the display.

Wife Louise says her husband is going through his second childhood. His great-grandchildren, ages 6, 11 and 13, are delighted.

"I let them come in and play," Canipe said. "I have to fix it back."

Canipe first worked on heavy equipment as a Department of Transportation employee. Then he worked at Foote Mineral for 30 years, earning numerous safety pins. He also worked at Kings Mountain Micah for three years and Lithium Corporation for eight years, retiring at age 70.

Several of his friends still working in mining and a few retirees have visited the display.

Heavy equipment working on the roadside continues to catch his eye.

"I want to stop and get on one. See if I can still run it," Canipe said.

Caring...Our Commitment to You

Cleveland Home Health Agency, Inc.

Pete Moore, CEO

Occupational Therapy Helps the Aging

Occupational Therapists play a critical role in assisting individuals through the aging process. They also help reduce the stress of caregivers by teaching them coping skills and new approaches to their loved one's care. Occupational therapists focus on the functional impairments associated with aging and age-related conditions. They work to maximize a patient's quality of life by helping them participate as fully as they wish in daily activities.

The professional staff of Cleveland Home Health includes Occupational Therapists who are dedicated to helping patients of any age achieve their maximum potential. Our home medical equipment department carries a variety of adaptive equipment that increase the independence of those with physical limitations. Cleveland Home Health Agency is committed to providing the best possible care for all our patients. Give us a call or visit us at 105 T.R. Harris Drive in Shelby. Our home medical equipment store is open Monday - Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Hint: A recent Gallup poll showed that 90% of seniors rated living independently as the most important aspect of aging.
