"We played well in spurts," McDowell said. "Darik Gary played an outstanding game on both ends of the court. We'd go up, go down by nine or ten, then come back and take the lead.

But we've got to get better play out of our big people to be able to compete. With eight new guys on the roster it may take the whole season to know what basketball is all about. Everything's new to them and it's like on-the-job training. But we have a good group of kids and I wouldn't have it any other way."

School's Spanish III students provided the community a language immersion experience Monday night.

Band members helped out with Richie Valens' "La Bamba," "Sketches of Spain" and "Malaguena." Students danced the merengue and sang in Spanish "El Cielito Lindo" and "Malaguena Salerosa."

Four skits, "Por Supuesto," "En el Baile," "En Casa Del Dentista" and "En Clase," were presented in both Spanish and English. The poem "Sensemaya" was recited in Spanish.

During the intermission students sold foods and handicrafts representative of Spanish speaking countries.

According to teacher Susan Canipe, the students in her two Spanish III classes are there because of a genuine interest in the language. Only two years of foreign language are required for college admission.

Students are able to converse in Spanish at a moderate level after completing the course, according to Canipe. Many of her advanced students plan to use the language later, some in teaching, business and healthcare.

Band members included Lindsey Carpenter, Ryan Hovis, Nikki Deaver, Heather Wilson, Steffie Collis, Angelica Adams, Krystal Proctor, Jennai Pettis, Pia Stock, Brandon Anthony, Jordan VanDyke, Stephanie Houser, Adam Pasour, Chad Roseboro, Bubba Noell, Martha Griffin, Chad Martin, Adam Queen and John Witherspoon.

Singers include Ethan Blanton, Wilder Clark, Bubba Noell and Ryan Hovis.

Skit cast members include Sarah Silcott, Kimberly Wilkie, Cole Lail, Brandon Anthony, Angelica Adams and Matthew Grigg.
