Myrtle Christenson elected to local and district auxiliary posts

Myrtle Christenson was elected president of Otis D. Green Unit 155, American Legion Auxiliary, at the recent meeting.

Christenson was also re-elected District 23 president, which also includes Units from Shelby, Forest City and Gastonia, at the recent district meeting in Cherryville.

Unit 155 will install new officers at the June 30 meeting at 7 p.m. at the American Legion building with Arlene Barrett, Lou Ballew and Fran Sincox as hostesses. A memorial service will also be held.

The Auxiliary will not meet in July but will meet August 11 at 6 p.m. for a picnic at the Moss Lake home of Ruth and Tom Mayhew.

Jr. Woman's Club sets diaper drive

The Kings Mountain Junior Woman's Club in conjunction with Chloe's Boutique is sponsoring a drive to collect baby diapers and wipes for the Kings Mountain Crisis Ministry. Diapers of all sizes are welcomed and can be dropped off at Chloe's Boutique, 402 E. Kings Street, Kings Mountain.

Diapers and wipes are a great expense for families in need, so all donations are greatly appreciated.

Donations will be accepted during June, July and August. For more information, call Margaret Gillikin at 704-739-3101.

KM Woman's Club to hold yard sale

The GFWC-NC Kings Mountain Woman's Club will hold its annual yard sale Saturday, June 11.

Toys, books, household items, clothing and other goods will be available. Proceeds go to the club's scholarship fund which awards a $1,000 scholarship each year to a graduating senior from Kings Mountain High School.

Call 739-3561 for more information.

Davidson Alumni reunion June 19

The Davidson Alumni Association will hold its 27th annual reunion Sunday, June 19 at 3 p.m. at Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church Family Life Center, 220 N. Watterson St., Kings Mountain.

Speaker will be Judge Lawrence Calvin McSwain. The public is invited.

BALL From 3B

coffee at the home of Judge and Mrs. James Morgan. Friday evening will include a parent dinner dance at Cleveland Country Club and a poolside debutante dance at Cleveland Country Club.

Debutantes and their chief marshals will be honored Saturday morning with a father-daughter brunch at Deerbrook Golf Club. A mother's luncheon will be held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Holbrook.

The formal presentation of the debutantes will be Saturday at 8 p.m. at Cleveland Community College. The event will include the debutantes, their chief marshals, assistant marshals, mothers and invited guests. Music will be provided by the Frank Love Orchestra.

The debutante ball allows the Junior Charity League of Shelby to continue its diligent service to Cleveland County's children through The Clothing Room and Kids on the Block projects.

The 2004-05 school year saw the league provide nearly 900 underprivileged children with coats and warm clothing. Through the use of Kids on the Block puppets, third graders throughout Cleveland County were presented a program on such delicate subjects as child abuse, drug awareness and mental and physical handicaps.
