Emily Bridges wins Scout's Gold Award

Emily Bridges of Kings Mountain has earned the Gold Award, Girl Scouting's highest honor.

BRIDGES

Bridges' project involved painting and organizing a new craft closet for her church. She also painted a Sunday school classroom. Bridges hopes that youth groups will come and enjoy the newly painted room and crafters will find the craft closet more organized.

Bridges is the daughter of Lisa and Andy Bridges. She is a member of Troop 30.

Bridges and 18 other area girls were honored during a May ceremony at Spencer Baptist Church in Spindale.

CHRISTOPHER TRAVIS HAWKINS

Sayers-Hawkins

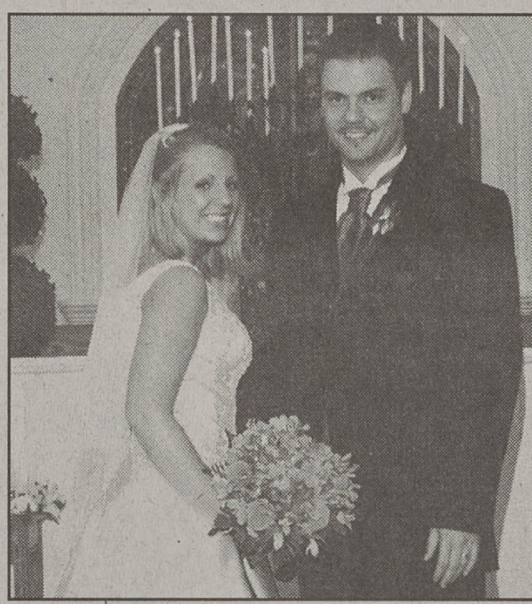

Britt Leigh Sayers and Christopher Travis Hawkins are engaged and plan to be married October 1, 2005 at Sharon United Methodist Church in Shelby.

Their engagement is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sayers of Rutherfordton. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hawkins of Kings Mountain.

Britt is a 2001 graduate of Western Carolina University with a BSBA in Marketing and is employed by Hurst Jaws of Life in Shelby.

Chris is a 1997 graduate of Gaston College/AAS Criminal Justice and a 2000 graduate of Western Carolina University with a BS in Industrial Distribution. He is employed by Turbo Systems of Kings Mountain.

WEDDINGS

MR. AND MRS. RONNIE EUGENE WYATT
(Carly Charise Turner)

Wyatt-Turner

Antioch Baptist Church in Blacksburg, SC provided the setting Saturday, May 14, 2005 for the wedding of Carly Charise Turner and Ronnie Eugene Wyatt. The Rev. Vernon Craig officiated the 4 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Dean Borders, vocalist, and Phillip Trammel, guitar soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and satin. The mock two-piece bodice featured an off the shoulder neckline. Rich embroidery and beading covered the bodice both front and back. An A-line skirt and cathedral train were detailed in the same lavish design. Her hair was adorned with three gold and crystal flowers. Her fingertip scalloped edge veil of white tulle was accented with beads and crystals. She carried a European hand-tied bouquet of yellow astromeria lilies, grape derdrobium orchids, and yellow calla lilies.

Grace Trammel of Shelby was the bride's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Chassity Wyatt, sister of the groom, Amanda Beard, cousin of the bride, and Brittiany McCallister.

Dylan Stewart of Central, SC, was ring bearer. Destiny Snyder of Gaffney, SC, was flower girl.

The groom had his father, Ronnie L. Wyatt, and his best friend, Brandy Ivey, as best men. Groomsmen were Dean Turner, brother of the bride, and Kevin Spencer, cousin of the groom.

Deana Rowe and Heather Green, cousins of the bride, attended the guest register and distributed programs. The wedding was directed by Bonita Lowe, the bride's aunt.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt are making their home in Blacksburg after a wedding trip to Orlando, FL.

The bride is the daughter of Roy and Sheila Turner of Blacksburg, SC. Her grandparents are Betty Parker of Blacksburg, the late Howard Parker, the late Elmer Turner, and the late Leonard and Ellie Lowe. A 1999 graduate of Blacksburg High School, she attended Cleveland Community College and is pursuing a double major in studio art and art education at Limestone College. She is employed by MiKasa at Prime Outlets in Gaffney, SC.

The groom is the son of Ronnie L. and Cindy Wyatt of Gaffney, SC. He is the grandson of Bob and Carolyn Vinson and Laura Allison, all of Gaffney, SC. He is a 1992 graduate of Gaffney High School and is employed by Bootleg and Prime Outlets in Gaffney, SC.

The groom's parents and grandparents were hosts for a bar-b-que rehearsal dinner at the church fellowship building on May 13.

MRS. MARK ANDREW WAMPLER
(Jennifer Hope Sloan)

Wampler-Sloan

Jennifer Hope Sloan and Mark Andrew Wampler were married at 2 p.m. on April 2, 2005 at First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain. Dr. John W. Sloan Jr., the bride's father, officiated with the assistance of Roger Critcher. A reception followed in the Christian Ministry Center.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Sloan Jr. of Kings Mountain. She is the granddaughter of Kathleen H. Sloan and the late John W. Sloan Sr. of Charlotte and Mrs. Bronah M. Doster and the late Ney S. Doster, also of Charlotte. Jennifer is a graduate of Appalachian State University with a BS in Chemistry - Secondary Education. She is currently working on her Masters of School Administration at Appalachian State University and will graduate in May of 2006.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry L. Wampler of Cherryville. He is the grandson of the late Horace and Inez Hamrick of Cliffside and the late Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wampler of Elkhart, IN. Mark is a graduate of Rutgers University in New Jersey with a BS in Criminal Justice.

The bride's sister, Joy Sloan of Kings Mountain, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Amy Flores of Raleigh, Kathy Holcombe of Asheville and Kerri Sizemore of Winston-Salem. The junior bridesmaid/flower girl was Amanda Critcher of Deep Gap. Andrea Allen of Cary, Pam Villiers of Wake Forest and Emily Long of Cambridge, MA were honorary bridesmaids.

The groom's brother, David Wampler of Pohatcong, NJ was the best man. Groomsmen were Charles Kleinberg of Somerset, NJ, Tom Szymboroski of Mountainside, NJ and J. Sloan of James Island, SC. Ushers were Patrick Williams of Boone and Kevin Daniel of Wake Forest. The ring bearer was Blake Honeycutt of Gastonia.

After a Caribbean cruise to Cozumel, Mexico and the Grand Cayman Islands, the couple will reside in Boone.
