Four sought for robbery of store

Kings Mountain Police are looking for four men who allegedly robbed a Waco Road convenience store last week.

The foursome robbed Kings Food Store at 10:12 p.m. June 22, according to police. Two of the men showed handguns. The suspects then took an unknown amount of money. The subjects fled on foot in an unknown direction. There were no injuries.

All four men are described as black. The first suspect was wearing black shorts, tan pants, white dora and blue mask. Suspect two was wearing a black shirt, camo hat and dark pants. Suspect three was wearing a white shirt, black face mask and faded jean shorts. Suspect four was wearing a white shirt, red shorts, white shoes and a mask. The color of the mask is unknown.

Anyone with information should call Crimestoppers' anonymous line at 704-481-TIPS. A reward of up to $1,000 is available if the tip leads to a conviction in the case. Police have already received some tips, according to detective Sgt. C.N. Moore.

Heart attack fatal to Shelby driver

BY ANDIE L. BRYMER
Staff Writer

A Shelby man died Tuesday from a heart attack while driving through Kings Mountain, according to the North Carolina Highway Patrol.

William Astor Ellis of 1930 Pleasant Hill Church Road was headed north on U.S. 74 business when the heart attack occurred. Ellis' car entered the One Stop parking lot striking a vehicle driven by Freddy Eugene Gladden Jr. of 201 Williams Road, Kings Mountain. Both vehicles ended up in a grassy area adjacent to the store. Gladden was not injured.

Ellis was driving a 2001 Ford. The vehicle sustained $3,500 in damage. The crash did $4,500 in damage to the 2003 Toyota driven by Gladden. The accident happened at approximately 2 p.m.
