To all my friends and neighbors in Ward 5 who voted for me, many thanks for your support. I appreciate each of you very much.

Lou Ballew

The day you were born the angels smiled and the world filled with beauty. The world continues to be a more beautiful place because you were in it. However, heavy our hearts are with grief, the weight is lessened by the treasures you gave us.

We give thanks every day for the time we had with you, and only wish that it could have been longer. Your life on earth may have ended but our love for you is eternal.

Love Forever

Your loving and devoted husband and family.

In Loving Memory

Pack 92 Bear Den visits KM Hospital

The Bear Den of Pack 92, the Battleground District, visited the Kings Mountain Hospital's new surgical services as part of "To the Rescue," that was celebrated in October.

The Bear Den also visited the Kings Mountain Police Department and was visited by Firefighter David Ayscue.

The scouts toured the new surgery area including an operating room. Jama Hammond, division director of surgical services, explained equipment and how the room is set up.

Stephen Watson of Stryker Endoscopy demonstrated how surgeons use a trocar that is inserted through a tiny incision in the abdomen and perform surgery while watching on a monitor. He explained that the surgeon can be precise with this less invasive procedure.

The scouts performed pretend surgery.

They were treated to a Halloween-themed reception of cupcakes, chocolate body parts and eyeball punch by Dana Painter, Judy Hensley and Kathy Morris.

Thomas Matola is the leader of Pack 92 and Bear Den leaders are Jeff Perkins, Ray Graham, Jamie Belcher and Patsy Long.

Open house at KM Art Center

The Sunday before Thanksgiving is the traditional open house for the Southern Arts Society and kicks off their annual calendar sale and members art show. This will take place from 1 to 5 p.m. November 20.

Come out to the Kings Mountain Art Center (the old railroad depot) and pick up your 2006 calendar. Refreshments will be served. The 21st edition of the Southern Arts calendar is only $20. Frames are available for $20 each also. The 2006 calendar theme is "Artist's Choice."

Each year the members of Southern Arts Society design and silk-screen by hand 600 limited edition calendars to sell to the public. The money raised from the calendars goes to scholarships to Cleveland County students entering college to study art and to support the Kings Mountain Art Center.

Members will also have work on display and for sale in the galleries. There is a Christmas Express Shop with artwork for sale under $75. All work is original to the artist. There will be paintings, pottery, knitting, jewelry and much more.

The Kings Mountain Art Center is located at 301 N. Piedmont Avenue. Hours are 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and by appointment. Call 704-739-5585 or 704-739-2056 for more information.
