First National promotes Page, Lovelace, England

The Board of Directors of First National Bank has announced the following promotions.

Brenda F. Page was promoted to Executive Vice President and is responsible for marketing/promotions, business development, public relations, and facility design and maintenance.

PAGE

Page began her banking career at First National in the operations department and, since that time, advanced through the professional ranks within the organization. She has completed both the NC School of Banking and the Dale Carnegie Management Training Program.

Page is the current Vice President of Kings Mountain Rotary Club and an Advisory Board member of the Life Enrichment Center. She received the Governor's Award for Volunteer Service in 1991, the Cleveland County Commission for Women's Distinguished Woman Award in 2003, and was recognized as a Caring Volunteer by East Elementary School. She has also been involved with Hospice of Cleveland County, Habitat for Humanity, Cleveland County Chamber and Bessemer City Chamber. She attends Putnam Baptist Church and is married to Morris Page. They have one daughter, Jessica.

LOVELACE

Brenda N. Lovelace has been promoted to Senior Vice President. As Kings Mountain City Executive and Branch Manager, she is responsible for all banking initiatives in that market area.

Lovelace has been in banking for 40 years. During that time she attended Gaston College, the undergraduate and graduate programs of the NC School of Banking in Chapel Hill, and the Institute of Financial Education in Charlotte.

ENGLAND

A member of Kings Mountain Rotary Club, Lovelace also serves as a director of the Life Enrichment Center, the Mountaineer Partnership, and Miss Kings Mountain pageant. She is Past President of the King Mountain Business & Professional Association and was a member of the YMCA Advisory Council.

In 2001 Lovelace was awarded both the YMCA Board Member of the Year/Kings Mountain and Myrtle Community Spirit Woman of the Year. She is married to Edward Lovelace. They attend First Wesleyan Church in Bessemer City and have two children, Todd and Erin, and three grandchildren.

Brittini J. England was named Administrative Officer/Loans. At the bank's Kings Mountain office, she assists lenders in preparation of loan package documentation and also acts as a customer service representative.

A Cleveland County native, England has been with the bank since 1998. She actively participates in community events including Relay for Life and Beach Blast. She attends the Family Worship Center Church of God. She is married to Chad England.

of utilities is currently underway at the site. Rodgers Builders of Charlotte holds the general contract for the new addition.

Mayor Rick Murphrey, who is a member of the hospital board of trustees, said the new construction will mean that patients won't have to travel outside the Kings Mountain area for the services the new facility will provide.

"Johnson Development, Kings Mountain Hospital and Summit Place are making a big investment in our community and I am excited," said the mayor.

Murphrey said that new jobs and services are coming to Kings Mountain with the completion of the trio of projects. The mayor added that Southeast Container currently occupies a Johnson spec building and Tube Enterprises has leased the second building.

"Once this much larger building goes up I am confident that a new industrial client will be coming on the scene that will provide jobs for our area," he added.
