Belmont bannernews sports writer Ritchie Hallman held the lead by picking 11 of 15 winners in last week's games. Publisher Bill Parsons also went 11-4 and is one game behind at 31-14. This week's guest picker is Bob McRae, former Kings Mountain Superintendent of Schools and former president of the North Carolina High School Athletic Association. The guests are tied with Kings Mountain Herald editor Gary Stewart for third place, followed by Cherryville Eagle editor Andie Brymer.

Highland blanks KM kickers 2-0

Kings Mountain High's men's soccer team fell to Highland Tech 2-0 Monday night at John Gamble Stadium. Highland broke a scoreless tie off a redirect kick that scooted in early in the second half. "There is not a whole lot that can be done on those types of shots," said KM Coach Erik Price. Ten minutes later the Rams added their final goal from the top of the 18-yard box. Jaye Jackson had an outstanding game on offense for the Mounties, and just missed scoring a goal. "Jaye has done a great job coming off the bench for us," Price said. "Our offense is getting in and creating chances. We just need to capitalize on these opportunities."
