Woman's Club Fall Festival starts set next Wednesday

EMILY WEAVER

eweaver@kingsmountainherald.com

A tradition over 100 years old, the Kings Mountain Woman's Club Fall Festival will be held on Wednesday, October 17 at the clubhouse at 109 E. Mountain Street.

Lois Blanton, publicity chairwoman for the festival said, "The turkey/ham meal will be served between 11:30-1:30 p.m. and 5:30-7 p.m." The tickets for a plate (eat in or take out) will be sold for $9 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under.

"After a few years of sky high prices on oysters, the oyster casserole is back," said Anne Gamble, with the Woman's Club. "We will be selling servings at the evening meal for $2 each." Oyster casserole will be sold on a first come, first serve basis.

"A Country Store will sell baked goods and crafts. A flower show "Home For the Holidays" will feature mixed bouquets, table settings, fresh vegetables, dried arrangements, herbs, annuals, roses, biennial and perennials," Blanton said. "Garden Clubs and individuals are invited to enter."

Entries will be judged by the public. Floral arrangements should be taken to the clubhouse between 5-8 p.m. on the 16th or between 7:30-9:30 a.m. on the 17th. To confirm a space, contact Linda Newsome at 704-472-8325 or Esther Plonk 704-739-1917.
