WILLIAM KEMP MAUNEY, JR.
KINGS MOUNTAIN - Former State Senator William Kemp Mauney, Jr., 90, of 200 E. Gold Street, died Saturday, June 18, 2008 at Hospice and Palliative Care of Cleveland County.

Born August 15, 1917, he was the son of the late William Kemp and Sarah Hoffman Mauney. In addition to his parents he was predeceased by three brothers, Ernest Mauney, David Mauney and George Mauney; two daughters, Mary Leigh Broadwell and Martha Jane Mauney. He graduated from Kings Mountain City School and attended Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory. He later served on the Board of Trustees for Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Upon graduation from Lenoir-Rhyne he was a pioneer in the N.C. hosiery business. Mr. Mauney started Mauney Hosiery Mills in the basement of his father's Cotton Mill. Through the years the company grew to employ over 300 people and was a major supplier of socks to the United States government. Many servicemen shared with him the joy of seeing socks arrive stamped Mauney Hosiery, Kings Mountain, NC, USA. He was the 1991 recipient of the Distinguished Service Award from the Catawba Valley Hosiery Association.

He was instrumental in starting many other businesses, Carolina Throwing, Inc., Lyntex Hosiery, Can-do Hosiery, Gaye Hosiery, Cleveland Hosiery, L&L Hosiery, RDS Hosiery, B-and-B Dairy Farm, and Kings Mountain Motor Inn. He was longtime board member of the Cleveland County Fair.

In the 1960's Mr. Mauney entered politics and served until the 70's in the North Carolina House of Representatives and the North Carolina Senate. He served on many committees under Governors Robert W. Scott and James B. Hunt, Jr. and introduced numerous bills into legislation. In 1974 he was recognized for unselfish support to Law Enforcement Officers and Fire Fighters of Cleveland County. Mr. Mauney for 66 years has been part of a group of several businessmen who provide a Christmas meal for any civil servant in the Kings Mountain area. He was a lifelong member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, serving in many church capacities. He also served on the Board of Blowing Rock Methodist Church during his 30 years of summer residence in Blowing Rock.

He was a charter member of the Kings Mountain Lions Club, serving 70 continuous years, and was a former Jaycee. He founded the William Kemp and Mary S. Mauney Foundation to provide many students scholarships and financial assistance and funding for local food banks and crisis ministries.

He is survived by his wife of 69 years, Mary Elizabeth Simpson Mauney of Kings Mountain; son, William Kemp Mauney III and wife Debbie of Kings Mountain; daughter, Sarah Mauney Faunce and husband David of Kings Mountain; grandchildren, William Kemp Mauney IV of Banner Elk, Mary Amelia Mauney of Charlotte, Britt Faunce and wife Bridgett of Alpharetta, Ga., Justin Faunce and wife Rachel of Cornelius, Natalie Turner Manning and husband Michael of St. Louis, Mo.; Rowland Goodrich Turner, III and wife Nikki of Ellabell, Ga., Ryan Broadwell and wife Elaina of Austin, Tex., Jennifer Jo Broadwell of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; great grandchildren, Blake

JIM JAIME

MERCER ISLAND, WASH. - Jim Jaime, 46, of Mercer Island, Wash., died at his home.

He was a gifted artist and the operator of the Mercer Island Auto Spa.

Mr. Jaime graduated from Wapato High School in 1973 and went on to play baseball at Eastern Washington University. He later graduated from Central Washington University with a degree in art/therapy. His art was shown in galleries in Washington, Oregon, North Carolina and Santa Fe, NM. His paintings were about his personal struggles and triumphs. He was a friend to many young people as a baseball coach, an avid fan of Mercer Island High School sports and as a supervisor of kids who worked at the Auto Spa. He never held back in sharing his own life experiences, wanting others to learn from his. He was an outspoken advocate of AA for almost two decades. He was an active member of the former Serenity Club and was employed at PPG in Shelby for four years.

He is survived by his wife, Suzanne Jaime; step-daughter, Morgan; sons, Jamie and Jeremiah Jaime; mother, Mona Bumgardner of Kings Mountain; step-father, Ross Bumgardner of Kings Mountain; step-brother, Rusty Bumgardner of Honolulu, HI; and, step-sisters, Tracy Bumgardner and Lorna Durbin both of Kings Mountain.

A memorial service will be held at 5 p.m. on Saturday, July 5, 2008 at St. Peter's Church in Wapato, Wash.
