

FACES of Kings Mountain

SEE A PHOTO YOU LIKE?
 8x10 reprints are available for only $10!
Call 704-739-7496

Photos by Emily Weaver

LIB STEWART/HERALD
Arlene Barrett, left, presents Myrtle Christenson a red and white patriotic tote bag for her leadership of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 155's recent poppy promotion. All donations from poppy distribution benefit veterans.

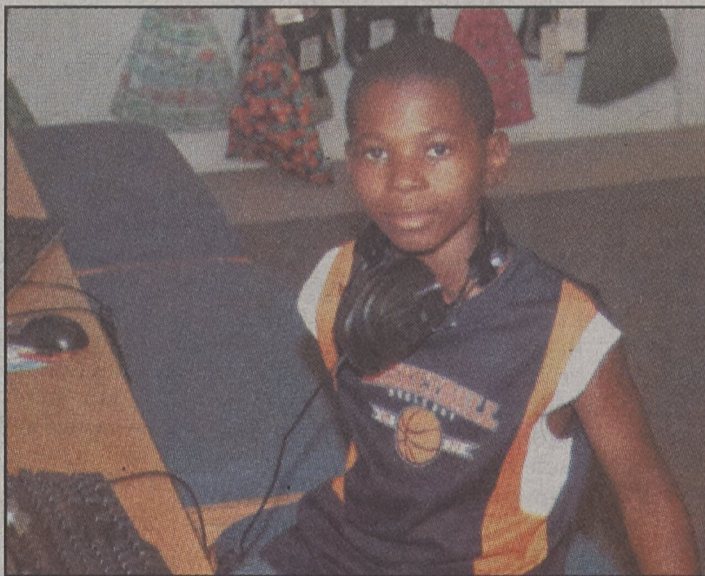

REBECCA PISCOPO/HERALD
Izhiah Bullock has taken one of his first trips to the library.

Aubrey Hallman plays the cool caterpillar in a scene from the KMLT's Summer Drama Camp upcoming production of "Alice in Wonderland."

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO
Marina Thomas plays in the water at the Kings Mountain Country Club. She recently competed in the club's annual swimming and golf tournament.

REBECCA PISCOPO/HERALD
Eleven-year-old Tifton Watson plays on some of the Library's computer options.

Stacy Stallings with the KM Family YMCA presents a plaque to Ray Wilson for the City of Kings Mountain having the highest number of participants in Activate Cleveland County, a program designed to help the community with weight loss and exercise goals. The city had 48 participants and lost an average of seven pounds each in the first six weeks. The total weight loss for the group was 189 pounds.

Left, left to right, mad hatters John Roy Pearson, Kyra Howard and John Randall rehearse a scene in the upcoming production of "Alice in Wonderland." Right, Bethany Mansfield (left) and Morgan Flitt are storytellers in the upcoming production of Alice in Wonderland.

