BARBARA PATTERSON

WACO, TEXAS - Barbara Baum Patterson, 77, wife of Dr. Bob Patterson, formerly of Kings Mountain, died June 25, 2009 at St. Catherine's Hospice Center after a three year struggle with pancreatic cancer.

A memorial service to celebrate her life and good works was held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, June 29, 2009 at First Baptist Church of Waco, Texas. Dr. Brian Harbour and Dr. Scott Walker officiated. A reception for the family followed the service.

A beloved wife, mother, college educator and social worker, Mrs. Patterson had a double license from the state of Texas as a professional counselor and social worker. She had a long career with the State of Texas and her last position before retirement was as a supervisor in the Child Protection Agency.

Surviving are her husband, Dr. Bob Patterson, Distinguished Professor of Religion at Baylor University, their two daughters, Lindy an husband, Brian Dehm of Crawford, Texas and Beth Patterson of Fort Worth, Texas; and two grandchildren, Ashley Dehm, 17, and Austin Dehm, 13.

Born in Canton, Ohio to Janet Glossier and Harold Baum, Barbara grew up in her teenage years in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. before leaving for college in 1950. She married Bob Patterson in December 1953 after graduating from Baylor University and they lived in Louisville, Ky. for six years while 'Bob' finished two graduate degrees. They moved back to Waco in 1961 when Bob joined the Baylor faculty in the Religion Department.

An active participant in the First Baptist Church of Waco, Mrs. Patterson was a member of the Patterson Sunday School Class. She loved to travel and took numerous trips to England, Europe, Russia and the Middle East with her husband. She attended classes at Oxford University, England, when her husband was on a research project there. She participated in several archeological digs in Israel with the Baylor Archeology program and also worked at the Waco Mammoth site. After retirement, she was active in community projects and returned to her love of painting in her home studio.

The family would like to thank all the doctors and medical technicians at Waco Oncology Center for their skill in ministering to Barbara during her illness and the staff at Providence Hospital and the Hospice at St. Catherine's Center. Barbara was thankful for a lifetime of friends and family who supported her in her months of illness.

In lieu of flowers, Barbara suggested that memorial gifts be made to the Gospel Cafe, 825 S. 10th St., Waco, Texas 76706 or to the charity of choice.

Suspect found hanging from rafters

Responding to a call of assault on a female, Kings Mountain Police found the suspect, 31-year-old Kenneth Pressley, of Bessemer City, hanging from the rafters of an apartment in Elizabeth Estates.

According to the arrest report, Pressley was found dangling from the ceiling after running into the apartment and "jumping into the attic". "When officers went in (side the dwelling the subject had fallen through the ceiling."

Another report claimed "damage to property", stating that the suspect had knocked a "hole in the sheetrock ceiling while hiding in (the) attic loft."

Damage to the ceiling was estimated at $450.

Pressley was charged with assault on a female and larceny. He was transported to Gaston County Jail under no bond.
