Kenneth Davis

KINGS MOUNTAIN - Kenneth Davis, 75, of 803 Woodside Dr. died December 30, 2009 at Wendover Hospice in Shelby after a lengthy and courageous battle with cancer.

He was born in Kings Mountain to the late Lloyd E. Davis and Mary Bennett Davis. He was a longtime member of First Presbyterian Church of Kings Mountain, where he served as an Elder and Deacon, and was Sunday School treasurer for 35 years. He retired after 15 years as manager of Oakwood Homes in Shelby. He also served a tour of duty with the United States Army and was an avid outdoorsman; his greatest joy was hunting with his grandson, Palmer Davis.

Surviving are his wife of 47 years and caregiver, Ann Falls Davis, of the home; son, Kenny Franklin Davis and wife, Amy Crawford Davis, of Kings Mountain; grandsons, Palmer Kenneth Davis and Bennett Crawford Davis; sisters, Patricia Davis Russell and Martha Beale Bell, both of Kings Mountain; and brother-in-law, Coman "Turk" Falls of Sugar Mountain, NC.

The funeral service was conducted Saturday, Jan. 2, 2010 at 2 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Lee Thomas and Rev. Mike Chambers officiated. The family received friends prior to the service at the Patrick House next door to First Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to First Presbyterian Church, PO Box 1188, Kings Mountain, NC

28086, or Hospice of Cleveland County, Kings Mountain Hospice Building Fund, 951 Wendover Heights Dr., Shelby, NC 28150.

A guest register is available at www.HarrisFunerals.com.

Harris Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Camille A. Mueller

Camille A. (Glossa) Mueller of Lufenburg, MA, died Wednesday December 30, 2009th at Boston Medical Center.

Born February 1, 1930 in Watertown MA, the daughter of William R. Glossa and Elizabeth (Gracie) Glossa, she graduated from Carney Hospital School of Nursing in South Boston with her RN in 1951. She worked at many hospitals in the Boston area until becoming a visiting nurse for the town of Marshfield in 1971. She considered caring for the sick and elderly residents of her home town in Marshfield the highlight and most enjoyable and memorable time of her nursing career. She enjoyed spending time at the Marshfield beaches and making sand dolls with two of her sisters, where they would travel the New England coast selling them to local shops from Bar Harbor to Provincetown. In the mid 1980's she began working at the medical clinic at the New England Telephone Company in Boston until her retirement due to illness in 1994. She successfully underwent a kidney transplant from one of her sons in 1996. In 2002 she moved with her husband to Lunenburg, MA, to be closer to her two daughters in Acton and Townsend. She was a devoted Roman Catholic and member of St. Anthony of Padua Church in Shirley MA.

The beloved wife of Robert Henry Mueller for 57 years, she is survived by sisters Elizabeth Fulton of Lexington, MA, Claire Mueller of Ipswich, MA, Joanne Comic of Newburyport, MA, and brother Richard Glossa of Port St. Lucie, FL. She is preceded in death by sisters Rita Collins and Mary Marrs, and brothers Phillip, Paul, and William Glossa.

Loving mother of Gretchen Prendeville and her husband John of Acton, MA, Robert Mueller and his wife Ann of Durham, CT, Mark Mueller and his wife Lisa of Carver, MA, William Mueller and his wife Karen of Brentwood, TN, Timothy Mueller and his wife Phyllis of Shelby, and Paula Puglia and her husband John of Townsend, MA. She was fondly known as "Gammie" to her 18 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, and loving aunt to a great many nieces and nephews.

Being the daughter of a piano tuner, she had a deep love of music and always enjoyed playing the piano. She loved crafts and sewed Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls for children. For some years she bred purebred German Shepherds and Golden Retrievers. She always enjoyed flower gardening and working around the yard with her husband. Her courage and determination to live life to the fullest despite her illness will be remembered by all who knew her.

A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church in Shirley on Monday, January 4, 2010 at 10:00 am. Burial was Tuesday at the National Veterans Cemetery in Bourne.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in the name of Camille Mueller to: Boston Medical Center Renal Clinic, Doctors Office Building, Suite 400, 720 Harrison Avenue, Boston, MA 02118.
