Novella Foster

KINGS MOUNTAIN—Novella Short Foster, 101, 1010 Second St, went to be with the Lord on Friday, May 14, 2010 at Kings Mountain Hospital.

She was born in Gaston County to Joe Baxter and Hulda Pruitt Short and also preceded in death by her husband, the late William F. "Pop" Foster, eight brothers and six sisters.

A homemaker, she was a charter member of the Kings Mountain Church of God, now Family Worship Center Church of God, and the oldest member of the church. She loved her church family and was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She will be greatly missed by her family, church family and friends. She always enjoyed going to Alston Bridges BBQ in Shelby.

Surviving are her son, Ralph Foster and wife, Katherine of Cherryville; daughters, Margaret Patterson, Sue Cochran, Faye Robinson, Debra Burton and husband, Mickey, all of Kings Mountain; Joyce Mann and husband Clarence of Shelby; and Shirley McSwain and husband, A. L., of Cherryville; 27 grandchildren, 55 great-grandchildren, 13 great-great-grandchildren and one great-great-great grandchild.

The funeral service was conducted Sunday, May 16, at 2:30 p.m. at Family Worship Center Church of God. Revs. Ray Almond and James Allen officiated and interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

The family received friends Saturday, May 15, from 6-9 p.m. at the Family Worship Center Church of God, Shelby Rd., and at other times at the home.

Memorials may be made to Family Worship Center Church of God Building Fund, 1818 Shelby Rd., Kings Mountain, NC 28086.

Former KM manager faces DWI charge

Greg McGinnis, former Kings Mountain city manager from 2004-2006, resigned May 4 as city manager of the town of West Jefferson following his arrest April 27 on several charges including DWI.

A native of Kings Mountain, McGinnis also served as city manager in Boiling Springs from 2001-2003.

The State Highway Patrol said the town-owned car McGinnis was driving hit a utility pole. McGinnis was charged with driving while impaired, hit and run, failure to stop for property damage and carrying a concealed weapon.

He has a July 29 court date.
