WRECKS

MAY 13: Officer Bryan McGinnis said that Michael Lavine of Blacksburg, SC said he changed lanes to avoid debris in the road and his 2000 Ford struck a 2011 Hyundai operated by Latoya Mosley-Rivera of Kennesaw, Ga. doing $1500 damage. The accident happened on I-85 north of the city.

MAY 16: Officer G.L. McKinney said that Helen Pajevski of Kaitlyn Ln turned her Dodge too wide and struck a 1991 Toyota operated by Zheng Hua Zheng, 212 Kaitlyn Ln at the stop sign. Property damages were estimated at $3600.

MAY 17: Officer H.W. Carpenter said that vehicles operated by Edwin Noles of Gastonia and Keith Sims of 400 Wilson St were traveling west on the three lane portion of the US 74 Bypass and as both cars approached the KM business exit, an unknown vehicle in the left lane merged into the middle lane almost collided with the Noles vehicle. Noles merged into the right lane to avoid the collision and the Sims car ran off the shoulder of the road to avoid the collision and through standing water and a ditch which caused the vehicle to roll over and then slide on its top until it came to a stop. The Sims car was damaged approximately $10,000.

MAY 19: Officer Mark Butler cited a 17-year-old driver with safe movement violation after the 2004 Honda he was operating turned in front of a 1994 Buick operated by Nicole Washington, Grover, doing a total of $10,000 damage. After the collision the Honda struck a Duke Energy utility pole, stop sign and bushes on NC 216. EMS transported all occupants of both cars to Cleveland Regional Medical Center for treatment of injuries.
