

My

Hometown

Haunts – Those places that drew us together...Burger joints, the fair, a country store, or a community well...places that drew us in like flies to honey...Section A

Holidays – A real tree trimmed in popcorn. The true spirit of Thanksgiving. Homemade mints. Or making up your own holiday with a family reunion. We love holidays in Our Hometown. Section B

Haints – Part of growing up in Our Hometown is the legends and ghost stories that are woven into our past...The lady of the house or soldiers roaming the battleground or a plantation house with 'bumps' in the night. Section C

Hallowed Ground – From the heroes of Our Hometown and the places where they played to bowlers of the 'Duckpin' variety, we're sports crazy in Our Hometown. Section D.
