Kings Mountain High will be host team for the weekly Big South 3A Conference golf match Monday, March 21 at 1:30 p.m. at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Veteran coach Kevin Moss has a young team this season that hopes to improve as the year goes on.

Mountaineers lose another close one

It was the Mountaineers' third loss by a combined total of four runs, and the third straight time the Mountaineers lost in their opponent's last time at bat.

Dallas Conner pitched another great game, going six innings and giving up just five hits. He struck out eight but three errors hurt.

Kings Mountain led 2-1 going into the bottom of the seventh inning. Jonathon

Davis hit a solo home run in the top of the third and Kings Mountain tied the game at 5-all in the fifth on a run-scoring double by Mitchell Cloninger and a two-run double by Brandon Gantt.

Jonathan Borchert came on the pitch the final two innings to get the win. He struck out five. Brown pitched the first five innings, fanning six and giving up four hits.

Jordan Kiser worked the first 4 2/3 innings for the Lions. Grant Byers went the final 2 1/3 innings and took the loss.

Borchert took the loss, giving up two runs, three hits and hitting one batter.

Conner led the Mountaineers at the plate with two hits, including a home run. Brandon Gantt and Wil Sellers each had a single. KM left seven men on base.

Howze shoots record 61 at KMCC

King Mountain's Gary Howze had one of those days that most golfers never have - and he will never forget - Sunday at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Howze toured the 18-hole, par 72 layout in 11-under-par 61 to set a new course record. The previous record of 62 was shared by many individuals including his father, John, and brother, Mitch.

Howze shot a 31 on the front side and 30 on the back, with no bogeys. He had seven birdies and eagled holes one and ten.

He was playing in a foursome with Rusty Bumgardner, Jared Spicer and Jamie Case.

Howze's previous low round was a 63 which he shot at KMCC several years ago.

"It was just one of those days," Howze noted. "I putted the ball extremely well and kept the ball in play all day."

Howze hit every club well, including a demo driver he was trying out.

"I started off each side well," he noted. "I made a couple of saving par putts. I holed the short ones and I made some real long ones that you get from time to time."

"It was just one of those things that came out of nowhere."
