Benefit Saturday for Juvenile Research

A yard sale Saturday, April 9, beginning at 7 a.m. at 145-29 Hicks Road in Grover will benefit the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Follow the signs for household items, clothing, furniture and 5, 10 and 25 cent items.

Reynolds to speak at Library

Roger Reynolds, independent investor from Waxhaw, will conduct a free seminar on how to be successful in trading the stock market at Mauney Memorial Library Saturday at 10 a.m. The public is invited.

Reynolds, 70, a broker for 28 years, retired in 1999 and has spent many hours researching and trading the market.

"If a person wants to be good at something he has to practice," says Reynolds who took that advice from Malcolm Cantwell's book, "The Outliers," on the New York Times best seller list for over a year. The book documents that Bill Gates and Paul Allen, who founded Microsoft, had access to a computer in middle school classes and practiced 10,000 hours before they were in college.

"I love the market and like to trade the stock market and I rack up more than 20 hours a week practicing and over 10,000 hours in the last 10 years," says Reynolds who says he looks forward to being in Kings Mountain.

Safety and dementia meeting

When is wandering a problem with dementia? Safety for people with dementia will be the topic for the next regular meeting of caregivers dealing with dementia Tuesday, April 19, at the Life Enrichment Center in Shelby.

Although more than 60 percent of people with dementia will wander away from home, many families do not believe it will happen to them. To prevent the first time being a tragedy, caregivers are invited to this free program, which also includes free sitter service for the person with dementia. With the vacation and family reunion season approaching, it is time to take precautions to keep these happy events happy. Learn techniques and safety steps to take at home and away from home.

The meeting will be held at the new Life Enrichment facility at 110 Life Enrichment Blvd., just off Fallston Road between Teddy and Meekins law office and Cornerstone Dental Associates.

To bring someone for the sitter service, you must call the center by April 12.

For questions about the meeting, call Linda at Life Enrichment: 704.484.0405.
