KMHS Class of '71 celebrates 40th reunion

Kings Mountain High School graduating class of 1971

Some 75 classmates and guests of the Kings Mountain High School Class of 1971 gathered on Saturday, September 24, 2011 to reminisce and celebrate 40 years since their last official student walk to John Gamble Stadium for the grand prize... receipt of a high school diploma.

Cleveland County Fairgrounds was the site of celebration that included a

B-B-Q dinner with all the trimmings served by classmate, Paul Goforth and his award-winning cooking team, King's Cooking. Music of the 1970's was provided by DJ Calvin Hastings. Black and gold table coverings with yellow mum centerpieces decorated each table.

Picture posters, a graduation photograph, memory books, pompoms and a cheerleading uniform from 1971 were displayed throughout the facility. An "In Remembrance Picture Board" was presented to honor the class' 30 deceased classmates.

Classmate Joan Davis Crawford took photographs of classmates and guests and provided a photo memory CD of the reunion.

Teachers attending the celebration included Mr. Allen Dixon, Ms. Glenda O'Shields, and Ms. Angel Lackey Teer.
