Resurrection Lutheran Church members return from tornado-ravaged Alabama

Members of Resurrection Lutheran Church recently returned from a successful mission trip to Pleasantville, Alabama, where just a few months ago a tornado brought devastation.

The missionaries were welcomed by a grateful community. "Welcome North Carolina Work Team" read a sign outside of Faith Free Methodist Church.

"The funny thing was that this Lutheran group stayed at a Methodist church (who were great cooks like our CUMC folks) supervised by a Presbyterian project manager and we worked on the house of a Southern Baptist," said Rev. Hobby Outten, pastor of Resurrection Lutheran Church.

The mission trip was Oct. 17-21.
