Mary Black

KINGS MOUNTAIN - Mary McCaslin Black, 95, of Kings Mountain, passed away peacefully Wednesday, Feb. 29, 2012 at Kings Mountain a t a i n Hospital after a brief illness. Mary was born Aug. 15, 1916 in Albemarle NC to the late Charles Terril and Edith Hoover Mc Caslin. Her father died when she was 18 months old and her mother married her stepfather, the late George Ivy Womack.

Mary was preceded in death by her loving husband of 60 years, Thomas Hilliard Black, in 1999. Mary and Hilliard were married in 1939 and were blessed with a lifetime of happiness and joy. Their devotion to each other was an inspiration to everyone. They were longtime members of Central United Methodist Church in Kings Mountain and Mary remained very active until the last few months of her life. She was a member of the Adult Fellowship Sunday School Class, her Circle, United Methodist Women, and served as a greeter for the Community Kitchen at the church. She even resumed piano lessons in her early 80's and proceeded to assist in piano accompaniment for her Sunday School class.

Mary was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend. She enjoyed a full life with faith, family and friends as her focus. She was an excellent cook, seamstress, and gardener, using her talents to enrich the lives of so many. Thanksgiving was a special occasion for Mary's family where her culinary talents were on display. Her sewing skills were very much appreciated by her family as well. She made beautiful window treatments, bedding, pillows and clothing.

Mary will always be warmly remembered for her positive spirit and caring nature and especially her great love of Tar Heel basketball. During games she wore her Carolina vest, kept her own statistics in a notebook for years, and called fellow fans before, during, and after games to compare notes. On her den wall hung a very special autographed picture of Roy Williams sent to her on her 90th birthday.

She is survived by her daughter, Peggy Black Jackson (Harold) of Spartanburg, SC; her son, Thomas Hilliard Black (Pat) of Lexington, NC; twin granddaughters, Alicia Jackson King (Stefan) of Cumming, GA and Ashlie Jackson Mazurowski (Pete) of Inman, SC; granddaughters Alison Jackson McClure (Kevin) of Murrell's Inlet, SC and Stephanie Black Wilson (Mike) of Midlothian, VA; and grandson, Thomas Hilliard "Trey" Black of Los Angeles, CA; great-grandchildren, Lauren King, Matthew King, Lindsey Mazurowski, Katelyn Mazurowski, Andrew McClure, Nathan McClure, Michael Wilson, and Kate Wilson. She is also survived by her sister, Margaret M. Hoyle of Chester, SC; sisters-in-law Pat Womack of Jacksonville, FL and Vera Black of Kings Mountain and many dear nieces and nephews and their families.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was predeceased by an infant son, her half-brother, George I. Womack; her step-brother, Kenneth Womack; and her step-sisters, Thelma Kistler and Harrie Lea W. McCarter.

A funeral service to celebrate Mary's life was held at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 4, 2012 at Central United Methodist Church, 113 S. Piedmont Avenue, Kings Mountain. Interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

The family received friends from 4-6 p.m. Saturday, March 3, 2012 at Harris Funeral Home, 108 S. Piedmont Ave., Kings Mountain, NC 28086.

A guest register is available at www.HarrisFunerals.com.
